

ISENBERG, Benjamin W. Isenberg

(From <http://projects.militarytimes.com/valor/army-spc-benjamin-w-isenberg/357948>)

Army Spc. Benjamin W. Isenberg, age 27, of Sheridan, OR; assigned to the 2nd Battalion, 162nd Infantry, Oregon Army National Guard, Corvallis, OR; killed September 13, 2004 when his military vehicle came under attack by small-arms fire and an improvised explosive device in Taji, Iraq while serving during Operation Iraqi Freedom. Isenberg is survived by his wife, Rachel, and 2 sons Jeremiah, age 4, and Kraig, age 2.

IVORY, Craig S. Ivory

(From <http://projects.militarytimes.com/valor/army-spc-craig-s-ivory/256703>)

Army Spc. Craig S. Ivory, age 26, of Port Matilda, PA; assigned to the 501st Forward Support Company, 173rd Airborne Brigade, Southern European Task Force, Vicenza, Italy; died of a non-combat-related cause August 17, 2003 in Homburg University Hospital, Germany while serving during Operation Iraqi Freedom. Ivory had been medically evacuated from Kuwait on Aug. 12.