

IACOVAZZI, John Michael Iacovazzi

(Abstracted from the Binghamton Press & Sun-Bulletin on May 3, 2015)

John Michael Iacovazzi passed away peacefully Wednesday morning, April 30, 2015. He was born July 10, 1923 and enlisted in the Navy in January, 1941 after graduating from Union-Endicott High School at the age of 17 years and six months. After basic training and radio and gunnery school he was assigned to bombing squadron five on the USS Yorktown, CV5, as an aviation radioman. He was in the Battle of the Coral Sea and a survivor of the Battle of Midway when the ship was sunk by Japanese torpedo planes. He retired from IBM (Endicott) in 1985. He moved to Florida and enjoyed many days on the golf courses as a ranger and a player. He loved to watch professional football, baseball and golf. He followed the Tampa Bay Bucs and Rays faithfully. He enjoyed shopping and cooking Italian dishes. He married Mary Ann Thiel in 1997 and they enjoyed traveling and playing golf. He is preceded in death by his three brothers, Peter, Leonard and Joseph. He is survived by his loving wife Mary Ann and his children, Robert (Linda) Iacovazzi, Roseanne Iacovazzi, James (Leslie) Iacovazzi, John Iacovazzi and Annmarie Shamp. Groover Funeral Home at Mansion Memorial Park in Ellenton, FL is entrusted with the arrangements. A military burial will be in Section 5, Site 734 at Sarasota National Cemetery, Sarasota, FL. IACOVELLO, Robert Lawrence Iacovello

(Abstracted from <https://www.legacy.com/obituaries/heraldtribune/obituary.aspx?n=robert-lawrence-iacovello-bob&pid=165312914&fhid=8474>)

Robert Lawrence Iacovello, of North Port, FL died on his birthday, June 7, 2013. He was 77. Bob was a veteran of the U.S. Army. He was a jack of all trades, but spent many years as a chef and auto mechanic. There wasn't much that he couldn't do if he had the right tools. He was a man of simple needs -- cooking meals, playing card games on the computer and watching Bonanza were all he needed to make him smile. He moved to Florida from Harwich, MA in 2001 and has enjoyed retirement with his family, great friends, fishing, antique car shows and daily visits to Abbe's Donut Shop. A celebration of life service will be Saturday, June 22, 2013 at Lakeside Lutheran Church of Venice. A private burial will be held in Section 6, Site 1861 at Sarasota National Cemetery. Bob is survived by his loving wife of 43 years, Judi (née Rupert); his daughter and son-in-law Michele and Michael Lamond; his grandsons Christopher and Nathan Lamond; his brothers Lorenzo, Mario and Dick Iacovello; his sisters Rose Barney and Loretta Beaudoin; and numerous nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by brothers Michael and Vincent Iacovello, and sisters Virginia Hart, Dorothy Rice, Camella Luciani, Margaret Plapis and Josephine DiTullio. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be given to the Paws for Patriots Program at Southeastern Guide Dogs, 4210 77th Street East, Palmetto, FL 34221 (www.GuideDogs.org) or Lakeside Lutheran Church of Venice, 2401 S.
