ALLEN, Emogene Harris Allen

(Abstracted from the Miller Funeral Home and Cremation Services, St. Marys and New Knoxville, Ohio - <http://www.millerfuneralhomes.net/>)

Emogene Harris Allen, 75, of 19100 East Shelby Road, New Knoxville, OH, died on Friday, February 19, 2010, at her home. Helen Emogene Harris was born on November 6, 1934, in Great Bend, Meigs County, OH, the daughter of Dexter and Helen (Proffitt) Harris. Emogene was involved with cooking and sewing in Home Economics while in school. At county fairs she entered cooking, canning, baking, and garment making contests. She graduated from Racine High School in 1952, and on May 30 of the same year married Howard R. Allen of Pomeroy, OH, whom she met two years earlier in her hometown of Great Bend. Together they raised five children. Emogene worked in a Bible Bookstore in Xenia, OH, for a number of years. She also coordinated and traveled for the Xenia Chapter of the American Red Cross doing presentations to promote Red Cross Blood Mobiles. In 1962, Howard and Emogene Allen first took the foundational class on Power for Abundant Living offered by The Way Ministry and began their nearly five decades of involvement with the ministry. From 1966 through 1998 Emogene managed The Way International Bookstore operations. It was in this capacity that she was instrumental in developing many of the procedures for mail order and item preparation, inspection, and distribution that later branched off into other Departments at The Way International Headquarters. In 1977, Howard R. Allen was installed as the second Secretary-Treasurer of The Way International, and Emogene faithfully supported him in this service. Emogene and Howard received the distinction of First Way Corps (a ministerial training program) in 1994 and recognition as emeritus Way Corps in October of 1998. Together they served with faithfulness and commitment to God and the ministry. With loving and dedicated service to God's people, Emogene's example has inspired many followers of The Way. She awaits the return of Christ and the rewards of the future. She is survived by her husband Howard R. Allen, of New Knoxville, OH, three brothers, Dale (Jean) Harris of Grove Hill, AL; Paul (Marilyn) Harris of Racine, OH; Charles (Waynita) Harris of Portland, OH; and five children, Cindy Lou (Michael) Fort of Indianapolis, IN; Krista Sue (Roger) Wulber of Willowdell, OH; H. Steven Allen of Indianapolis, IN; Michael C. (Jenny) Allen of New Knoxville, OH; Daniel H. (Shelby) Allen of New Knoxville, OH; twelve grandchildren; and one great-grandchild. A recognition service will be held at The Way International Headquarters in New Knoxville, OH. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that those that prefer to make a personal financial donation may send it "In honor of Emogene Allen" to The Way International, Box 328, New Knoxville, OH 45871. Arrangements are under the direction of the Vornholt-Miller Funeral Home in New Knoxville.

AXE, Thomas R. Axe

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 15 November 2014)

Thomas R. Axe, age 90, was carried home to heaven on Tuesday, Nov. 11, 2014. Born in St. Marys on May 21, 1924, Tom was the youngest of nine kids from Joseph and Clara Axe. His siblings were Cletus, Urban, Damion, James, Joseph, Vincent, Mike and Rose Margaret. All have preceded him in death. Also preceding him in death are several nieces and nephews. Tom was known by many names; "Dad" was perhaps his favorite. In St. Marys he was known as "Dick" as well as his well-earned nickname of "Worry Wart." To one of the many teams he coached, he was known as "The Bolger". He was also kiddingly known as "Grass Head" because of his lifelong fondness for his flat top haircut. Tom was known for many things. He was a star pitcher, a baseball, football and track coach, a salesman, a terrific cook and an all-star complainer. Tom loved many things including his wife of 65½ years, Winnie, telling everyone he met in his later years how much he loved her. Of course he loved his many kids, grandkids and great-grandkids. He was very active in Wyandotte County politics, loved his democratic political cause and writing political ads. He loved reading, fishing at Heim Lake and his many winters spent on South Padre Island. Tom was very prolific in life and left a legion of loved ones behind. His children are Mark and Patty Axe, the Rev. Greg and Vickie Axe, Laraine "Tinker" and Gary McCray, Renee and David Likins, Keith and Debbie Axe, Chris Axe and Colleen "Ardy" and Scott Loux. From this came 23 grandkids, 14 great grandkids and two on the way. He is also survived by Jerry Steele, and in-laws Ida Axe, Jenny Axe, Ronnie and Janice Rohrbach, Gene and Barb Rohrbach and Lucille Rogers. There are nieces and nephews, too numerous to list. Tom came to know Jesus as his savior and we invite one and all to celebrate his earthly life here and his eternal life in heaven. Chapel Hill Funeral Home, 701 N. 94th St., KCK 66112 handled the arrangements. There will be a memorial service just after visitation at Chapel Hill. The family requests no flowers. Instead they would appreciate contributions in Tom's name made to Crest Bible Church, 8715 W. 49th Terrace, Merriam, KS 66203, or the Wyandotte County Parks and Recreation Foundation, 5033 State Ave., KCK 66102.
