He was the son of the late Greg and Anna Marie (Hoying) Eilerman. On Aug. 30, 1975, he married Peg Shelby, who survives in New Bremen. He is also survived by his children; Kim (Andy) Lee of Dublin and A.J. (Jenny) Eilerman of New Bremen; by his grandchildren Isla Lee, Ashtyn, Maeve and Everley Eilerman; by his siblings Janet (Robert) Hoying, Joan (Robert) Schnabel, John (Sandy) Eilerman, Judy (Jon) Sacksteder and Jerry (Marge) Eilerman, all of Minster; by his in-laws Mike (Rosie) Shelby of St. Marys and Theresa (Bob) Garner of Tucson, AZ, and a number of nieces and nephews. Joe was an active member of the Church of the Holy Redeemer in New Bremen, having served on Parish Council and several other committees. He was a former Boy Scout Leader in Minster and a member of the former New Bremen Lions Club. In 1984, after learning an old bridge northeast of New Knoxville was going to be replaced by the Auglaize County Commissioners, Joe "bought" the bridge and had it moved, reworked and placed at its present location across the Miami-Erie Canal in downtown New Bremen. He attended both the Ohio State University and Wright State University, studying mechanical engineering. Joe retired in 2011 from the Midmark Corporation of Versailles where he was hired to develop and manage its in-house Technical Publication Department. Prior to working at Midmark Corporation, Joe was employed at STAMCO and Crown Equipment Corporation, both of New Bremen, and Fabcor of Minster. Following his retirement in 2011, Joe founded the Mission of the Body and Blood, serving as president and a member of the Board of Directors to, as in Joe's own words, "as a way to repay all of the good deeds given to me," helping those in both Tanzania and Haiti. Joe loved his family especially spending time with his grandchildren. He enjoyed classic cars, and had restored several over the years. He was an outdoorsman, spending time fishing and hunting. A Mass of Christian burial will be Saturday at the Church of the Holy Redeemer in New Bremen. Burial will follow in the St. Augustine Cemetery, Minster. Joe requested that contributions be made to either the Gasper Seminary in Morogora, Tanzania, Africa or to the Mission of the Body and Blood. Gilberg-Hartwig Funeral Home of New Bremen is handling the arrangements.

EISERT, Anna Rebecca Eisert

(Abstracted from Schlosser Funeral Home, Wapakoneta, Ohio, 3 November 2016)

Anna Rebecca Eisert, of Wapakoneta, gained her angel wings and soared to Heaven in the late evening hours of November 3, 2016 at Nationwide Children's Hospital, Columbus. Although her time here on Earth was all too short, she was the cherished daughter of Craig Allen & Erin Rebecca (Blanchard) Eisert Jr., for 1 year, 11 months, and 15 days. She was born on November 18, 2014, in Lima, Ohio. Survivors also include her paternal grandparents, Craig & Christina Eisert Sr. and Robin Eisert, all of Wapakoneta; maternal grandparents, John & Catherine Blanchard, of Botkins; paternal great-grandparents, James & Barbara

Eisert and Linda Stolzenburg, all of Wapakoneta; maternal great-grandmother, Carol Malz, of Aurora; four aunts & uncles, Alex Edson of Wapakoneta, Sara & Joseph Lammers of New Knoxville, Katie & Ernesto Casillas of Botkins, and John L. & Jennifer Blanchard of New Bremen and ten cousins, Olivia, William, Elizabeth, Samuel, Nicholas, Johnny, Josephine, Johanna, Jacob, and Andrew. Anna's brief time here was filled with love and light, even through her fight with Neuroblastoma. She could only be described as ornery and sassy, a true Daddy's Girl. Handling her treatments with a grace and determination well beyond her age, she was a source of inspiration. If the weather was nice, she loved to be outside. Taking golf cart rides with her grandparents was a special treat. Anna enjoyed swinging and doodling with sidewalk chalk, or splashing in the pool when she was able. She loved bath time too, and drawing on papers, or occasionally the fridge. Her favorite playmates were her cousins and she was an exceptional momma to her doll, "Baby". Anna loved eating Padrone's cheese stuffed breadsticks. They were her comfort food, when nothing else sounded good. She was drawn to anything with a musical beat. While Anna was open to all genres, she was just starting to sing along to soundtrack of her favorite movie, Tangled. Although Anna's time with us here is done, we take comfort in believing she is flying free in Heaven. As Rapunzel sings, "For like the first time ever, I'm completely free! I could go running and racing and dancing and chasing and leaping and bounding. Hair flying, heart pounding and splashing and reeling and finally feeling, now's when my life begins!" A Celebration of Life Service will be Thursday, November 10, 2016 at Immanuel United Church of Christ, Kettlersville. Burial will follow in Greenlawn Cemetery, Wapakoneta. Schlosser Funeral Home & Cremation Services, Wapakoneta handled the arrangements. The family would like to invite everyone to wear bright colors, especially pink or purple. Memorial contributions may be made in Anna's Memory to the Dayton Children's Hospital Hematology/Oncology Unit.

ETTER, Robert Edward Etter

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 15 November 2018)

Robert Edward Etter, age 68, was called to his heavenly home with his loving wife and family by his side on Friday, Nov. 9, 2018. Robert (Bob) was born Nov. 15, 1949 in Lima, the second son of the late Gordon and Lillian (Moore) Etter. Bob grew up in St. Marys, with five brothers: playing various sports, excelling in school and participating in many other activities including Boy Scouts (Life Scout, Philmont, National Jamboree, Mile Swim, etc.), Top Ten in Ohio Scholastic Achievement Tests, theatrical arts, dancing, chess club, etc. As a 1968 honors graduate of Memorial High School, Bob initially pursued architecture studies at Ohio State University as a National Merit Scholar. He ultimately graduated in psychology at the University of Cincinnati. In his career, Bob installed computer systems and was a professional photographer for over 20 years, including running his own composite business in Mount Gilead. There, he met Kimberly Myers, a social worker, who was a caseworker for Morrow County Human Services. On Nov. 27, 1993, Bob and Kim were married at the Worthington Inn in Worthington. Most recently, Bob and Kim lived in Fairborn, where they were active members of the Faith Community United Methodist Church in Xenia. Throughout his life, Bob was an avid reader and enjoyed writing, drawing, building models, computers, the 'art of guns,' tinkering with cars / engines, watching Fox news and 'a good debate.' Bob loved his family and will be greatly missed. Along with his parents, Bob is preceded in death by his brother: Ronald Etter. Bob is survived by his wife: Kimberly (Myers) Etter; brothers Thomas Etter (Joan), Jon Etter (Sharon), Roger Etter (Evelyn) and Dana Etter (Gloria); sisters-in-law Rose Etter (Ron's wife), Paula Jameson and Barbara Ford; nephews Max, Jarret, Johnathan and Brandon and nieces Amy, Rachel, Leslie, Vanessa, Amanda and Samantha. After his marriage to Kim, Bob became a cat lover, rescuing 10 cats and feeding many more during their life together. Bob also leaves behind his beloved cats. Memorial services will be Saturday at the Faith Community United Methodist Church, 100 Country Club Drive Xenia. Arrangements are in care of McColaugh Funeral Home, 826 N. Detroit St. Xenia.

ETTER, Ronald E. Etter

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 28 July 2017)

Ronald E. Etter, age 64, of Ashley, succumbed to cancer on Wednesday, July 26, 2017, after fighting a two-year battle. He was born on Aug. 31, 1952, in Lima to the late Gordon E. and Lillian (Moore) Etter. A graduate of St. Marys Memorial High School in 1970, he went on to earn a bachelor's degree from the College of Wooster. He married his high school sweetheart, Roslyn "Rose" (Hierholzer) in 1975. The couple shared nearly 50 wonderful years together, almost 42 of them as husband and wife, making a life together and raising their three children on a farm north of Ashley. He is survived by his wife, Rose; children, Andrew (Ashley) Etter of Columbus, Rachel Etter of Dublin, Leslie (Michael) Williams of Powell; treasured granddaughters, Cecelia and Charlotte Williams; brothers, Tom (Joan) of Grandview, Bob (Kim) of Dayton, Jon (Sharon) of Grandview, Roger (Evey) of Delaware and Dana (Gloria) Etter of Michigan; nieces, and nephews. A gifted writer and creative mind, he worked as a copywriter and a producer in the field of advertising. Ron began with the advertising agency of Kight Cowman Abram Advertising and spent the majority of his career with Lord Sullivan & Yoder. Most recently, he worked as a senior copywriter with GSW inVentiv Health. Ron was a dedicated employee who thoroughly enjoyed his work, making many cherished friends and receiving numerous accolades, including several ADDY awards, along the way. Above all else, Ron was devoted to his family. He made it a point to attend every practice, event and activity of his children. Family vacations spent at the Outer Banks were the highlight of his summers. He possessed a large collection of vinyl records and connected with his family through his passion for music. Ron also enjoyed sports, particularly the soccer events of his children, and fishing with his friends on Ara Lake in Canada. He was a loyal friend, wonderful husband, adoring father, doting grandfather and, put simply, "an all-around good guy." Services celebrating Ron's life will be at Snyder-Rodman Funeral Center, 101 Valleyside Drive at West William Street, Delaware. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be made to: Cancer research organizations, to Kindred Hospice or to Pelotonia.
