FEAVER, Laurence Edward Feaver

(Abstracted from the Miller Funeral Home and Cremation Services, St. Marys and New Knoxville, Ohio - <http://www.millerfuneralhomes.net/>)

The Reverend Laurence Edward "Laurie" Feaver, 81, of 11520 Dove Lane, St. Marys, Ohio, died peacefully Thursday, July 15, 2010, at Otterbein St. Marys Retirement Community. Beloved husband of 58 years to Marilyn (nee Schneider): dearest father of Nancy (Michael) Radke of Woodruff, SC; Debra (David) Comodeca of North Olmsted, OH; Tim (Dewi) Feaver of Louisville, CO; Jon Feaver, of Iowa City, IA; devoted grandfather of Nathan, Kristin and Ben Feaver, and Lyn and Jenny Radke; brother of Stanley (Virginia) Feaver of Urbana, OH and the late Raymond Feaver (Gladys) of Stockton, CA; brother-in-law of Shirley (Bob) Bruns of Boulder, CO, and the late Olive and Earl Hill, of Louisville, KY; and many other relatives also survive. Laurence was born August 5, 1928 in Fremont, OH to Charles and Elsie (Bowes) Feaver, the youngest of three boys. He graduated from Marion Harding High School in Marion, OH in 1946 and enlisted in the U.S. Navy V5 Pilot Program. He first studied engineering at Purdue University, then continued training at Pensacola Naval Base. Following a calling to ministry, Laurence received an honorable discharge from the Navy and enrolled in North Central College in Naperville, IL. After graduating in 1951, he went on to Evangelical Theological Seminary and was ordained a minister of the Evangelical United Brethren (now United Methodist) Church in 1954. Reverend Feaver followed his calling for the rest of his life, moving back to Ohio and serving churches in Celina, West Independence, Bucyrus (Woodlawn), Toledo (Zion E.U.B./Hope U.M.), Westerville (Church of the Master), Wilmington, and Fostoria (Wesley). As a pastor and preacher, he was known for his sense of humor, as well as for his inventive and memorable (and often spontaneous) sermon points. Laurence was also a talented and skilled craftsman who designed and built his St. Marys home nearly single-handedly. He took an interest in local history at home (particularly Ohio's 19th century shipping and transportation canal system) and wherever else he went. Laurie loved to travel, and especially enjoyed road trips: he and his family toured 48 states by car or motor home in earlier years, and after retiring in 1991, he and Marilyn visited England, his parents' homeland, several times, as well as traveling to Alaska, Hawaii, the British Isles, Europe, Norway, and the Panama Canal. His favorite trip was to the "Horseshoe" in Columbus, Ohio; Laurie was an enthusiastic Ohio State fan and attended at least one game a year to cheer on his Buckeyes and enjoy the great O.S.U. marching band. A lifelong music-lover, Laurence was an accomplished trumpeter and singer. While a member of the Purdue Marching Band, he was chosen for the honor of playing 'Taps' at the Indianapolis 500, and continued playing trumpet and singing in choirs throughout his life. In retirement, he was a mainstay of the Otterbein Community Choir's bass section. Inurnment Saturday, July 24, at Noon, at the Union Cemetery, Road D, Pettisville, OH, 43553. Memorial contributions may be made to the Otterbein St. Marys Retirement Center or the Salvation Army.

FLEDDERJOHANN, Gladys Amelia Stroh Fledderjohann

(Abstracted from the Miller Funeral Home and Cremation Services, St. Marys and New Knoxville, Ohio - <http://www.millerfuneralhomes.net/>)

Gladys Amelia (Stroh) Fledderjohann, loving mother, grandmother and great-grand mother passed away on Sunday, January 15, 2012, surrounded by her loving family. Gladys was born in her childhood home near New Knoxville on October 16, 1921. She was the only daughter of 4 children born to Vernon and Ella (Vordermark) Stroh. She is survived by 2 brothers Harold (Edith) Stroh of Wapakoneta; Ralph (Barbara) Stroh of New Knoxville; and a sister-in-law, Jean Stroh of Mansfield. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband and a brother, Rolland Stroh. Gladys attended area schools and in 1939 her Senior Class was the first to graduate from the newly constructed New Knoxville High School. Gladys was married to Vernon Fledderjohann on May 25, 1941. They remodeled a home on a farm near New Knoxville for their new home and lifelong residence. Gladys was a loving mother to their 4 children: Linda (David) Michael of Madison, WI; Larry and Paula (Bubp) Fledderjohann of New Knoxville; Nancy Archer of Sidney; Jay and Dee (Stiles) Fledderjohann of New Knoxville. In her lifetime Gladys spent more time as a homemaker and mother and grandmother and great-grandmother than in pursuits that generated monetary income. Instead, she chose to be gainfully employed in ways that produce far more important dividends in the life of her family than mere financial gain. At some point in her lifetime she was a daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, friend, 4-H member; kite flyer; bubble blower; 4-H advisor; turkey packer; farm worker; arrowhead hunter; crackle glass collector; antique lover; feeder of bulls; grower of flowers; parade participant; jig saw puzzle lover; voting poll volunteer; Christmas decorator; Easter egg hider; holiday coordinator; solitary player; painter; decorator; repairwoman; hair stylist; barber; canner; gardener; landscaper; bike rider; humming bird watcher; deer watcher; hospital guild volunteer; fisherwoman; prize winning cook; 4-wheeler driver; quilt maker; seamstress; costume designer; church member; church guild member; bread and cookie baker; candy maker; mediator; counselor; caregiver; nurse; patient; neighbor; gambler; Rook player; Sheep head play player; domino player; butcher; and many, many other roles which she carried out with love. Gladys spent many hours in fun loving activities with her 9 grandchildren: David and Sara (Michael) Luna of New York, NY; Tim and Jessica Michael of Wankesha, WI; Andy and Johanna (Michael) Chenous of Argyle, WI; Mark and Shelly (Rush) Fledderjohann of Saint Marys; Mike Fledderjohann and Samantha Menke of New Knoxville; Stacie Ryan Archer and Stephanie DeGanaro of Delaware, OH; Tim and Stephanie (Archer) Manning of Havertown, PA; Kyle and Amy (Fledderjohann) Bishop of Mansfield, OH; Gregg and Becky (Fledderjohann) Amstutz of Pandora, OH. Gladys also delighted in spending time with her 19 great-grandchildren. In later years, Gladys called Elmwood Assisted Living in New Bremen, Ohio, home. She spent many hours there playing Sheephead and Dominoes and participating in other activities with several former neighbors and newly found friends. Many staff members at Elmwood grew to love Gladys like family. Funeral rites will be Friday, January 20, 2012, at the First United Church of Christ, New Knoxville, OH. Gladys will be laid to rest in Pilger Ruhe Cemetery, New Knoxville. Memorial donations may be directed to Grand Lake Home Health, 1122 E. Spring Street, Saint Marys, OH 45885.

He was born October 5, 1943, in Lima, the son of Vernon and Gladys (Stroh) Fledderjohann. He married Paula Bubp on June 27, 1964 and she survives at the residence. He is also survived by his 2 sons: Mark (Shelly) Fledderjohann of Saint Marys; Mike (Samantha Menke) Fledderjohann of New Knoxville; by 4 grandchildren: Garet Fledderjohann; Calen Fledderjohann; Haydn Fledderjohann and Kamryn Fledderjohann; by his siblings: Linda (David) Michael of Madison, WI; Nancy Archer of Sidney; Jay (Dee) Fledderjohann of New Knoxville; by a sister-in-law, Carol (Norval) Kohlhorst of Maumee, OH; and a brother-in-law, Gene (Eileen) Bubp of Albuquerque, NM. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews. Larry was preceded in death by his mother on January 15, 2012 and his father had died previously. He was a 1961 graduate of New Knoxville High School. Larry was a life long farmer in the family dairy and later in partnership with his brother, Jay, in the Johann Acres Family Farm, assisted by his son Mike. He was a member of the Democratic Central Committee since 1983 and a member of the Democratic Executive Committee since 1990. He served Auglaize County in a job he loved on the Board of Elections since 2003, and had just been unanimously re-elected to another term. He was Auglaize County Democrat of the Year in 2000. Larry enjoyed collecting milk bottles from local dairies of the past, as well as old tools, antiques and other interesting items. He served many years on the Zoning Board of Appeals. He enjoyed watching his grandchildren participate in their various activities. Funeral rites will be Saturday, February 11, 2012, at the First United Church of Christ in New Knoxville. Burial will follow at Pilger Ruhe Cemetery. Memorial gifts may be directed to either the Auglaize County Dog Warden or New Knoxville Historical Society. FRANTZ, Gregory Frantz

(Abstracted from <https://www.hogenkampfh.com/obituary/br-gregory-frantz>)

Br. Gregory Frantz, C.P.P.S., age 91, died peacefully at St. Charles Center, Carthage, Ohio, on Monday, May 27, 2019. He'd lived and ministered at St. Charles for nearly all of his life as a religious brother. He was born in Cleveland on February 3, 1928 to John and Rose (Gedeon) Frantz. He entered the Society in 1948 and was professed on December 3, 1950. After a year at Brunnerdale, the society's high school seminary near Canton, Ohio, Br. Gregory was appointed to St. Charles Seminary (now St. Charles Center). He was a member of the house at St. Charles from then on, and performed many services for his religious community, including serving as a driver for his fellow Missionaries at St. Charles. For many years, he was one of the Community's photographers, and could be seen clicking away with his camera at any C.P.P.S. gathering. Brother Greg had entered the Congregation with his twin brother, Henry, who became a priest. Fr. Henry Frantz died in 2015, and Brother Greg was the last of his immediate family. Brother Greg was unfailingly kind and compassionate to everyone he met. He was cheerful in his ministry, driving thousands of miles to take his C.P.P.S. brothers to doctor's appointments. He willingly served for Mass, Benediction and funerals at St. Charles. He loved to play golf, and was planning to spend many happy hours on the links this spring. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Charles Center. Burial will follow in the Community cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, Cincinnati Province.

FRANTZ, Henry L. Frantz

(Abstracted from http://www.hogenkampfh.com/memsol.cgi?user_id=1560985)

Fr. Henry L. Frantz, C.P.P.S., died Monday, April 13, 2015, at Lima Memorial Hospital, where he had undergone surgery last week. Fr. Frantz, who was 87, had lived at St. Charles Center, Carthage, Ohio. He was born on February 3, 1928, in Cleveland, Ohio, to John and Rose (Gedeon) Frantz. He entered the Missionaries of the Precious Blood in 1948 and was ordained on May 15, 1954 at St. Charles. Fr. Frantz was in parish ministry for much of his life as a priest. He served as an associate pastor at St. Francis Xavier Church in St. Joseph, MO. (1954-57); Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, Cleveland (1957-61); Corpus Christi Church in Dayton (1961-67); and St. Andrew Parish in Orlando (1967-75). St. Boniface Church in New Riegel, OH (1975-85), was his first assignment as pastor; he was also pastor of St. Agnes Church in Uniontown, KY (1985-94). In 1994, he returned to Florida as the associate pastor at the Church of the Nativity in Longwood, where he served until his retirement to St. Charles Center in 2007. He is survived by his identical twin brother, Br. Gregory Frantz, C.P.P.S. The two went to high school together in Cleveland, and to college in Kentucky before they decided to follow their vocational call to become Missionaries of the Precious Blood. They entered the Congregation at what was then St. Charles Seminary. "People couldn't tell us apart, but that was their problem," Br. Greg said. "After a while, they got us straightened out." Fr. Frantz felt called to ordination as a priest, while Br. Greg was called to life as a religious brother and remained at St. Charles to serve the Community there. They remained close and enjoyed time together throughout their lives as blood brothers and brothers in the Precious Blood, slipping away for a round of golf whenever they could through all those years. It was especially good to be reunited in their retirement at St. Charles, where they lived in apartments next to each other, Br. Greg said. Fr. Frantz was a gentle, genial soul who truly loved his ministry as a pastor and the people who whom he ministered. He was much loved at the Church of the Nativity, where many people still remember him fondly. He was always ready to listen to anyone who needed to talk, and he was quick with a joke for those who needed a smile. While there, he also served as the sponsor of the group of C.P.P.S. lay associates, called Companions, and continued to keep in touch with them via Skype after he moved to St. Charles. A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated on Thursday, April 16, 2015, at St. Charles Center. Burial will follow in the Community cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, Cincinnati Province.

Albert F. Freytag, Jr, brothers Karl and Robert, sisters Marie Winklejohn, Louis Tebbe, Elsie VanOss, Paula Monahan & Margaret Schrimpf. He was a member of St. Augustine Catholic Church, Minster, past president of the Minster & Ft. Loramie Historical Societies, and past president of the Minster Civic Association. He was part of a group that brought quality nursing home care to Minster with the creation of Heritage Manor Nursing Center. He developed the first oversight board for the St. Augustine Catholic Cemetery in Minster. Concerned that victims of the 1849 cholera epidemic were not being adequately remembered, Mr. Freytag created a monument in the cemetery to honor them. He was the owner and operator of Albert F. Freytag Masonry for more than 40 years, starting the company when he was just 18 years old. He was justifiable proud of the many churches, schools and private homes his company built in the area. He represented many generations of fine stone and brick masons, beginning in Germany. In retirement Mr. Freytag pursued his love of history, especially family history. A born story-teller, Mr. Freytag loved to regale children and grandchildren with tales of his childhood. He gathered recollections of his childhood in the autobiographical Turp & Eb, published in 2002 by the Ft. Loramie Historical Association. His most recent work was a biographical novel of his wife's great uncle. He and his wife Marj enjoyed traveling throughout the world, especially in Europe. For many years he and Marj vacationed in Marco Island, FL where they researched her family history. His biggest passion was his extended family, his children, but most especially his wife, who was the love of his life. He was an avid horseman and collected antiques of all kinds, including antique carriages. Mass of Christian Burial will be Saturday, March 16, 2013 at St. Augustine Catholic Church. Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster has been entrusted with the services. Burial will take place in St. Augustine Cemetery. FREYTAG, Marjorie M. Freytag

(Abstracted from http://www.hogenkampfh.com/memsol.cgi?user_id=2158491)

Marjorie M. "Marj" Freytag (nee DeLaet), age 92, of 2233 St. Rt. 362, Minster, OH, died Wednesday, January 16, 2019, at her home in Minster. She was born June 10, 1926 in Houston, OH to the late Raymond & Marie (Dickman) DeLaet. She was a 1944 graduate of Ft. Loramie High School. She married Albert F. Freytag on June 12, 1948 at St. Michael Catholic Church, Ft.

Loramie. Her husband preceded her in death. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by two sons, Albert F. Freytag, Jr. and Joseph R. Freytag, and sister Mary Elizabeth Freytag. She is also survived by children Marge & Wayne Jones, Loveland, OH, Dr. Thomas R. & Gwynne Freytag, Wapakoneta, William J. & Joyce Freytag, Botkins and Lisa Freytag, Minster, 10 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, and 2 sisters-in-law, Ellen Freytag, Sidney and Anne Freytag, Minster. She was a member of St. Augustine Catholic Church, Minster. She was an integral part of Albert F. Freytag Masonry for more than 40 years, serving as the bookkeeper and administrative guru. Her husband frequently described her as "the brains of the outfit." In fact, in recounting his attraction to Marj, Albert said it was her "smarts" that first attracted him. Together they made a great team, weathering many challenges in their nearly 65 years of marriage, always leaning on their faith and the strength of their relationship. In a reflection of her father's nickname for her, "Greased Lightening," Marj was always ready to travel, anywhere and everywhere. Her favorite saying was, "Don't ask me to go somewhere if you don't mean it because I'll always say yes!" For many years she and her husband vacationed in Marco Island, Florida where they researched her family history, especially that of her great uncle, Joe Dickman, described as the "hermit of Kice Island." She and her husband also traveled extensively with a longtime group of friends, touring in Europe, Ireland, the British Isles, Israel, Morocco and Mexico. Marj and Albert also traveled throughout the United States, frequently stopping at Civil War sites ... or the best restaurants! Coming from a family of great cooks, she was accomplished in the kitchen, delighting in trying new recipes, frequently culled from those restaurant visits. Her biggest passion was definitely her husband, her family, her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was also a sports nut, avidly following, depending upon the season, the Xavier Musketeers, the Cincinnati Reds, or the Ohio State Buckeyes. Mass of Christian Burial will be at St. Augustine Catholic Church. Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster is entrusted with the arrangements. Burial will take place in St. Augustine Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Minster Historical Society or the Ft. Loramie Historical Society.

FUJIMOTO, Sachiko Fujimoto

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 4 December 2012)

In loving memory of Sachiko Fujimoto of Tokyo, Japan, who passed away at her home after a long illness due to pancreatic cancer. She is survived by her husband, Kenji Fujimoto, and daughter, Akari Fujimoto, both in Tokyo. Her illness was detected shortly after her last trip to visit friends in St. Marys four years ago. The Fujimoto family lived in St. Marys from 1988 through 1994. Kenji was President of Mecha Tech System Corp., a division of Orii Corp., and they chose St. Marys as their first location for a sales and service operation in the United States. After Kenji's return to Japan, the local office was moved closer to the Cincinnati Airport, where they remain today. Although a very small company, they were very supportive of the community, having started the Mecha Tech System Corp. Youth Exchange Fund through the Community Foundation. Sachiko and Kenji were very active with international activities in the community and surrounding area, including opening their home to many people to enjoy Japanese culture, assisting with programs at the library and in the local schools, and assisting with the people to people exchanges with Japan. Being one of the first pioneer Japanese families who came with the three new industries in 1988, she was very instrumental in enriching the existing Sister City relationship and brought American and Japanese people together to learn more about one another's culture. She was named Woman of the Year by the St. Marys Sister Cities Organization. Some of her community involvement included: Japanese language classes, worked with Japanese ladies on an origami project that won honors at the Auglaize County Fair, helped youth interested in traveling to Japan with learning Japanese language and prepared Japanese food for them, opened her home for Girls Day presentations invited many people in to learn about this celebration, assisted with the reception for Keidanren CBCC from Japan which included the brother-in-law of the Emperor at that time, left small gifts on friends door steps, visited people in nursing homes, organized Japanese girls to perform Japanese dance for presentation to the public, furthered the friendship between St. Marys people and the people of Hokudan-cho (now Awaji City) by being directly involved in regular activities and assisted with all visits from Japan, assisted with the establishment of Sister City relations between Celina and Van Wert and their sister cities on Awaji Island, went into the local classrooms and the local library to share Japanese culture with the community. She was always anxious to hear the stories of the youth who traveled to Japan to learn their impression of their first visit. She loved international travel. She and her family traveled to many countries. In the most recent years they organized many tours to Czech. She never saw a stranger and used her warm and friendly way to learn more about other people. Sachiko's "American parents" were William and Jane Stewart; and, Allen and Kathe' Sandkuhl. Her American sister was Frances Pyles and her family, husband Lee and children Michael Wehnes and family and Chris Miley and family. Sachiko touched the lives of many people during her stay in St. Marys. Some of her other dear friends included Barry and Shirley Kemp, Terry Hesson, Bernadine Potbury, Mike and Miriam Lynch, Mary Ann and Kim Klopffleisch, Pam and Dean Hobler, Rees and Deb McKee, Phyllis Henderson, Ken and Kim Strickland, Randy and Sandy Henkener, Ruth Ann and John Woensner, Mary Alice and Mick McDermitt, Frances and Nick Van Schoyck, Jim Seifring, Dale Grimes Jr., Dale and Evelyn Grimes Sr., Dan and Sue Hosek, Doris Lawler, Stan and Nan Davis, Larry and Ronda Shelby, Mary Alice and Doug Brookhart and family, Dave and Jean Woodyard, Linda Burkholder and family, Jim Elking, Sue Nuss, Joni Ahlers, Chuck and Theresa Rowen and other teachers at West Elementary School, Jim and Pam Harris, Chuck Gregorovich and family, William and Eva Sell, Kraig and Chris Noble, Jackie Paulus and family, Larry and Sue Sullivan, Rachael, and family, Mary Jo and Dave Stilwell, Linda Koons, Bill and Paula Drummond, Deb and Jim Geis, Karen and Steve Hunter and many others too numerous to list. Kenji Fujimoto and friends are planning a memorial service for Sachiko in April 2013, in St. Marys. Those who would like to be notified of the service and celebration of her life, can send an email to gssc@bright.net with their name, address, email, etc. The family has requested that no condolences or flowers be sent to Japan. Instead, her American sister has asked that these friends start writing their remembrances of Sachiko in the form of a letter to the Fujimoto family. These will be put together in a book to be presented to the family at the memorial service. Please email your letter to gssc@bright.net or mail to PO Box 337, Waynesfield, OH 45896. A memorial fund has been established in Sachiko's name through the St. Marys Community Foundation. Memorial contributions may be made payable to the St. Marys Community Foundation in Memory of Sachiko Fujimoto and mailed to The Community Foundation, 206 E. Spring St., St. Marys, OH, 45885.
