GARDNER, Lynne Ellen Gardner

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 16 March 2011)

Missy Gardner, age 62, of St. Marys, fell asleep on Monday, March 7, 2011, and is awaiting the return of her lord and savior, Jesus Christ. Missy, called "little miss" by her grandmother, was born Lynne Ellen Wassung on Aug. 31, 1949, in Troy, NY, the firstborn of Robert and Harriet (Dahlmeyer) Wassung. She grew up in Torrington, CT, and Clinton, SC. She graduated from Clinton High School in 1967 and was the yearbook co-editor. She was crowned Miss Clinton 1967 and competed in the Miss South Carolina pageant that year. She earned her bachelor's degree in music education from the University of South Carolina and afterward taught middle school music. In 1985, she completed a year of Biblical studies at The Way College of Emporia in Kansas, where she met her husband, Jeffrey. She and Jeff were married on Oct. 12, 1985, shortly after moving to Ohio, where they had lived and worked as staff of The Way International for more than 25 years. She worked in multiple capacities, and she sang in the Prevailing Word Chorus Choir with her husband since 1986. She learned a love of music from both her parents. She directed and sang with vocal groups most of her life, especially women's quartets. She combined this love of music with her love for and delight in God by singing, dancing and writing music for the past 13 years in The Way Productions group, The Singing Ladies of The Way. She was proficient in vegetable and flower gardening, kept a warm, peaceful, inviting home, was given to hospitality and taught others how to do so, was an awesome seamstress, loved ballroom dancing and sailing, counted hors d'oeuvres as her favorite meal and always had a smiling, joyful attitude and kind words that blessed everyone that crossed her path. She is survived by her husband, Jeff; her father and stepmother; seven siblings; many nieces and nephews. Her body was donated to the Wright State University medical school. A service was held on March 11 at The Way International for her fellow staff members. Another for the families and other friends will be held in North Carolina on March 26. In lieu of flowers, please consider a contribution to the fund set up for Missy's medical expenses, Missy Gardner Medical Fund, P. O Box 19706, One Norman Blvd., Suite 213, Cornelius, NC 28031.

GAUSE, Florence E. Gause

(Abstracted from the Ketcham Ripley funeral home Rockford Ohio website)

Florence E. Gause, age 95, of Rockford, Ohio, died Tuesday, March 14, 2017, at her home. She was born in Kalamazoo, MI on June 21, 1921, the daughter of Harley and Minnie (Myers) Shively. Florence was a 1940 graduate of Geneva-Adams County High School. She obtained her first job at the Geneva License Bureau, and later worked at the Geneva Milling Company as a secretary; she then went on to work at the Decatur Casting Company, where she was the Production Secretary. On October 15, 1944, she married Lloyd Gause, and became a dairy farm wife, of which she was very proud. She and Lloyd celebrated over 72 years of marriage, spending every day together on the farm. Florence was a member of the Chattanooga United Methodist Church; in 1947 she became a member of the Chattanooga Grange, and then the Unity Grange, and was also a member of the Pomona Grange in Mercer County—she was very active in the grange for 69 years. In 1980, she helped establish the charter membership of the Mercer County Genealogy Society. She spent a lot of time going through the red tape of establishing this organization. She loved her work with genealogy; working tirelessly, she delved through records and published numerous books and records. Before computers, she and the other members went to the cemeteries, brushing the tombstones and recording the deaths, using the old flour, chalk, and paper method to record the births and deaths of so many countians. Whole cemeteries were done this way by her and her colleagues, culminating in publishing entire books of the records. Florence was so very talented at crocheting, and enjoyed her hobby so very much. She loved making crocheted blankets for every member of her family, and everyone cherished her hand-made gifts. Surviving is her husband, Lloyd, of Rockford and three children: a son, David (Lois) Gause; two daughters, Vickie (Tim) Bollenbacher, and Marjorie (Jay) Ellis, all of Rockford; 11 grandchildren; 3 step-grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren; 11 step-great grandchildren; 3 great-great grandchildren; and 3 nieces and 2 nephews. Deceased are her parents, an infant son, a sister and her husband, Imogene and Clarence Amstutz, and 1 great grandchild. Services will be Friday, March 17, 2017 at Ketcham-Ripley Funeral Home in Rockford. Burial will be in East Bethel Cemetery outside of Rockford. Memorials may be directed to the Chattanooga United Methodist Church or to the Mercer County Genealogy Society.

GAUSE, Lloyd Victor Gause

(Abstracted from the Ketcham Ripley funeral home Rockford Ohio website)

Lloyd Victor Gause, age 99, of Rockford, Ohio, died Wednesday, May 3, 2017, at his lifelong home. He was born in Mercer County, OH on the family homestead on December 29, 1917. He was the son of J. Estle Gause and Rosetta (Slusser) Gause. Lloyd was a 1935 graduate of Rockford High School. He was a lifelong dairy farmer on the family farm. On October 15, 1944, he married Florence E. Shively who then became his partner working the family farm together. Florence and Lloyd were married in the home that they lovingly shared for over 72 years of marriage, spending every day together until she preceded him in death on March 14, 2017 in their home. Lloyd was a long time active member of the Chattanooga United Methodist Church. In 1939 he became a member of the Chattanooga Grange, and then the Unity Grange, and was also a member of the Pomona Grange in Mercer County—he was a dedicated member of the Grange for 78 years. Surviving are his three children: a son, David (Lois) Gause; two daughters, Vickie (Tim) Bollenbacher, and Marjorie (Jay) Ellis, all of Rockford; 11 grandchildren; 3 step-grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren; 11 step-great grandchildren; 3 great-great grandchildren; 1 sister, Eulah Shank of Hoagland, IN; and many nieces and nephews. Deceased are his loving wife; parents; an infant son; 4 brothers, Ralph, Gale, Chester, and Lewis Ray Gause; 6 sisters, Beatrice Huston, Thelma Gehron, Anna Gehron, and Mary, Esther, and Honore Gause who all three passed away as young children; 3 half-brothers, Clarence, LeRoy, and Charles Gause; and 1 half-sister, Amotie Gause. Services will be Monday, May 8, 2017 at Ketcham-Ripley Funeral Home in Rockford. Burial will follow at East Bethel Cemetery outside of Rockford. Following the wishes of Lloyd, the family requests that memorials be directed to Chatt United Methodist Church, or the Cancer Association of Mercer County.

GEREN, John Charles Geren

(Abstracted from Schlosser Funeral Home, Wapakoneta, Ohio, 26 July 2019)

John Charles Geren, age 41, previously of Wapakoneta, passed away on July 26, 2019 in Tuscon, AZ. Born to Gary and Raelene (Neuman) Geren on March 20, 1978, John was joyously welcomed home by his three older sisters, Lisa, Kristine, and Mary. Survivors include his wife Lee Ann Feathers; parents Gary and Raelene Geren; sisters Lisa (Ken) Winget, Kristine (Marty) Limbert, and Mary (Larry) Lutz, and nieces and nephews Taylor Winget, Allison Limbert, Mitchell Limbert, Claire Limbert, David Limbert, Sally Fisk, Hanna Rizzo, Haley Geren-Hinegardner, Mia Lutz, and Owen Lutz. John was preceded in death by his grandparents, Nathan and Maureen Geren, Trudy Horton and Earl Neuman; uncles James Beck, Greg Neuman, and Rodger Geren, and nephew, Teddy Lutz. A 1996 graduate of Wapakoneta High School, John earned his degree in Aeronautical Engineering from the University of Cincinnati in 2002. He was employed by Raytheon. John was a big man with a loving heart. He loved, in no particular order, his family, friends, puppies, and kittens. His greetings always included a big hug and smile. His gloriously infectious laugh made those who heard it wonder what he was up to - and for good reason. John loved to make people laugh. He would go to great lengths to do it, often including costumes, props, and for those lucky enough to witness it, his exquisite dance moves. John loved music and was an accomplished guitarist who could cover anything from Bach to Metallica with ease and great flair. He was also a huge Star Wars fan, and could talk about stories and characters for hours - and often did. A Celebration of John's life will be at the Wapakoneta Performing Arts Center on the campus of Wapakoneta High School. Visitation with the family will be the day of the service. Casual dress is encouraged. Memorial contributions may be directed to the SPCA Cincinnati, 11900 Conroy Road, Cincinnati, OH 45249 or the charity of donor's choice. The family has entrusted Schlosser Funeral Home & Cremation Services to assist with the arrangements.

GOSSARD, Richard Lyman Gossard

(Abstracted from Schlosser Funeral Home, Wapakoneta, Ohio, 26 May 2014)

Richard Lyman Gossard, age 73, of Wapakoneta died suddenly at his residence on Monday, May 26, 2014. He is survived by his wife Carol (Walter) Gossard, son Richard Gossard, Jr, and daughter Barbara (John) Steger. Dick was a 1958 graduate of Sidney High School, earned a Bachelor of Arts degree Bowling Green State University, and a Master of Education degree at Xavier. He and his wife and children moved to Naples, Florida in 1979, where he and Carol taught school in the Collier County School System until they retired in 1999. Upon retirement, Dick spent time each week teaching adults to read, and he and Carol both tutored school children in a variety of classroom subjects. Dick was an avid gardener, spending just slightly more time working his garden than sharing the fruits of his labors, often leaving small bouquets of roses on doorsteps, and office reception counters, as well as boxes of fruits and vegetables. Enjoying tending the flowers he grew gave him an appreciation of garden and shrub flowers to the exclusion of cut flowers, and his family knows he would appreciate donations made to support sanctuary for the Florida Panther in care of the US Fish and Wildlife Service. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Florida Panther National Wildlife Refuge 3860 Tollgate Boulevard, Suite 300 Naples, FL 34114. Funeral services will be Saturday May 31, 2014 at First United Methodist Church in Sidney, Ohio. Burial will follow at Pearl Cemetery in Swanders, Ohio.
