varied, but most were centered on her love of horses and the locations where they were boarded; she still had fond memories of her very first horse, Lanie. She was also involved with toll painting along with her sister, as both were self-taught artists. Stephanie had also worked at the St. Marys Goodyear Tire and Rubber Plant and Kiefaber Plumbing Supply. After several moves in New York and Pennsylvania, Steph and Steve settled in North Warren, beginning her employment at Whirley Drinkworks on Nov. 11, 1983, in the molding department. She transferred to the art department in 1985 as an artist and was promoted to assistant art director in 1995, a position she held until her illness. She enjoyed her work because of the fact she was able to put her artistic ability to her full potential. Even during her illness, her constant worry was for her co-workers, with which she had formed a strong bond. She considered them family. She had attended the Holy Redeemer Church. Steph's interests leaned toward animals. She loved her dog Darwin, her standard poodle; her love for horses continued, and she volunteered at Double Rainbow Farms and was a trustee there. Her other interests included pottery, gardening, jewelry making, reading and being with her friends. Stephanie will be missed by her family and by her many loyal friends who were by her side until the end. With Stephanie's fear of confined spaces, her wish was to be cremated. Peterson-Blick Funeral Home Inc., 1003 Penn Ave., East Warren is handling the arrangements. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the John Blair Hospice House, 2 Crescent Park, Warren, PA, 16365, or to Breast Cancer Research in honor of her sister Anna, American Cancer Society, 2 Crescent Park, Warren, PA, 16365.
