Lucas was passionate about his career, working for Elanco Animal Health for more than ten years in roles that took him from Greenfield, IN to the feed yards in Garden City, KS to the stocker cattle in Lebanon, TN. He was an agile learner and respected leader. Many of Lucas' best times were spent with Elanco colleagues and customers where he strived to leave things better than how he found them. Lucas loved cattle. He was particularly fond of high-quality show cattle and spent many hours preparing, showing and judging cattle. Luke's pride-and-joy was his first vehicle, a metallic jade green '79 Ford F250 pickup that he rebuilt with his dad. Lucas remained grateful and focused on what matters throughout his life and cancer battle. While Lucas left us much sooner than we wanted, we know that cancer can't stop his impact on this world. His impact touched many, shaping who they are and driving them to make a positive difference. And that's exactly how his impact continues. We ask that you help us honor Lucas by capturing a story or writing a message about him. These memories will be used to make a book to be shared with Autumn, so she can know more about the man her dad was. Memorial service will be at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, 302 E. Pearl St., Wapakoneta. Schlosser Funeral Home & Cremation Services, Wapakoneta is entrusted with the arrangements.
