TAIPALUS, Clara Mae Poisson Taipalus

(Abstracted from information from the W. H. Dick & Sons-Hellwarth Funeral Homes of Celina and Mendon, Ohio, 1 June 2016)

Clara Mae Poisson Taipalus is walking in heaven with her Father, The Lord Jesus Christ. Her walk began on June 1, 2016 at Lima Memorial Hospital in Lima, Ohio. Her struggles are now over, and she is at peace. She is survived by a son, Chris Taipalus, a daughter, Carrie Heck, a sister, Mary Alice Bobbitt, her grandbabies: Allison & Andrew Taipalus and Teya, Kara & Anthony Heck, a daughter-in-law, son-in-law, cousins, nieces and nephews. Preceding Clara in death were her husband: Jon Taipalus, father: Dona Poisson, mother: Margaret Poisson, brothers: Joe Poisson and Ernie Poisson, grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins. She was born March 21, 1943, and raised in Hubbell, MI, where she enjoyed Ernie's Gas Station, fishing with her mom, walks with her dad, and the Tamarack River. Other pastimes were spending time at the Lake Linden, Michigan soda shop, movies, friends, family, and ice skating. Clara had enjoyed working at the Nursing Home in Hubbell before meeting her husband, Jon Taipalus. They moved to Chicago for a few years, and then settled in Alma, MI, where they raised their two children. She had been employed as an accountant, secretary, and home health care provider, and had worked at the State Road Bingo Hall and as a hall monitor at Alma Middle School, until she retired. Clara had a heart of gold, and shared that with everyone, having volunteered for Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Salvation Army Food Bank, the local Democratic office, and at her children's school. She instilled in her two children love, kindness, thinking of others, having fun, hard work, family, friends, and living life to the fullest. Clara had a great gift of listening to whoever needed someone to talk to. We all have had talks with her about whatever. She helped raise all her children's friends, too. (they all know who they are) She loved you all! Clara has inspired a lot of people, and her smile, hugs, kind words, and somewhat patience will be missed. Love You, Mama! XXOO W.H. Dick & Sons-Hellwarth Funeral Home in Celina, Ohio is handling the arrangements. Services will also be Friday, June 10th, at the Lux-Moody-Wolfel Funeral Home in Alma, Michigan. Memorial Contributions may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.
