VOGEL, Carol Vogel

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 15 September 2016)

Carol Vogel, age 70, of St. Marys, passed away on Tuesday, Sept. 13, 2016, after an incredibly brave battle against cancer. She will be deeply missed by her many family and friends who loved her dearly and enjoyed her company daily. Carol was born in Welch, WV, on Dec. 5, 1945. She was one of 12 children of Lum and Ada Mae Flanagan. Her incredible stories of growing up "poor" in the coal mining hollers of West Virginia were never tales of desperation, but of family, love, adventure and hope. Carol's number one priority was always family. First and foremost, were her dear surviving sissies and brother, including Irene Alsbrook (Oklahoma City), Betty Spaulding (Lima), Pat York (Franklinton, NC), Eunice Coldiron (Celina), Theresa Klosterman (St. Marys), Linda Lane (Lerona, WV) and Larry Flanagan (Rathdrum, ID). Their bonds were inseparable from their days growing up together to the moment she passed with many of them close by her side. Second were her children, who were her pride and joys, including Ken Ashley (Pittsburgh, PA), Alex Vogel (Celina) and Heidi Vogel (Celina). She gave so much of herself to her kids, including her love of life, laughter, art, music and games of skill. She was an incredible parent, advisor, supporter and motivator. Third, were her grandchildren, who she doted and bragged on including Callie and Cody Vogel (Celina) and Chelsea Westgerdes (Celina), and great grandchildren, Lexi and Bentley (Celina). Watching them grow, attending soccer and ball games, seeing them become adults and go to college gave her much pleasure. Fourth, was her late husband of 40 years, Wolfgang Vogel, who passed away in 2003. She and Wolfie created many memories together while living in Chicago, Idaho and Ohio, and while working at Huffly's in Celina. She was preceded in death by sisters Geneva Beeman and Edith Phillips, and brothers Frank and Don Flanagan, who will be waiting in heaven for her with open arms. Carol had many passions. She loved to travel. Her favorite destinations were Florida to hunt for seashells, Vegas to play poker and Italy to walk the cobbled streets and admire the many fountains. She also enjoyed playing poker, especially Texas Hold'em. Whether it was in Vegas, at the Beau Rivage in Biloxi or Greektown in Detroit, you could find her enjoying good conversation with friends, dealers and strangers, while raking in large pots. In addition to her sisters who were able to be by her side every day of her last days, her children are incredibly thankful for the overwhelming support of so many family members. Special gratitude is extended to Theresa Klosterman, Eunice Coldiron, Melissa Spaulding, Kim Coldiron and Stacy Sleeper (Klosterman) for offering their immense love, support and assistance during her visits at The James and while undergoing long-term hospice care. Following a graveside service for family, Carol will be interned with her Wolfie at Elm Grove Cemetery in St. Marys. In lieu of flowers, the family ask that you please send a donation to Grand Lake Hospice, 1122 E. Spring St., St. Marys, OH, 45885, as thanks for their loving care of Carol and so many others. Arrangements have been entrusted to Cisco Funeral Home in St. Marys.

VOGEL, Esther Vogel

(Abstracted from the Miller Funeral Home and Cremation Services, St. Marys and New Knoxville, Ohio - <http://www.millerfuneralhomes.net/>)

Esther Vogel, 85, passed away unexpected on December 19, 2007. Esther was the daughter of Lewis and Sarah (Buddemeyer) Wibbeler born June 20, 1922. She married Eugene Vogel in 1941. He preceded her in death in 1972. Their daughter, Tami Vogel died in 1981. Esther is survived by two daughters Karen Vornholt (Steve) of Harris, MO and Connie Hegemier (Gary) of Earlysville, VA. Six grandchildren Debbie Klein (Don) of New Bremen, OH; Darlene Bowers (Chris) of Ada, OH; Greg Vornholt (Deana) of Chillicothe, MO; Matt Hegemier (Hallie) Free Union, VA; Tim Hegemier (Suzie) Charlottesville, VA; Abby Lunn (Sean) Charlottesville, VA and twelve great grandchildren. She is also survived by a sister-in-law Betty Vogel (Bill) and a brother-in-law Bernard Kruse (Ruth) both of St. Mary's OH and many nieces and nephews. She had three sisters Selma Settlage, Emma Arnett, Ruth Kruse and three brothers Leroy Wibbeler, Henry Wibbeler and Walter Wibbeler who all preceded her in death. Born in the Moulton area of Auglaize County, she lived in St. Marys, OH until moving to Charlottesville, VA in 1998. For the last year and a half she has been a resident at Morningside Assisted Living in Charlottesville where she loved so many of the staff. Esther loved to work, read current events and health publications, and was very generous sharing recipes and candy treats with others. She was employed in Ohio at Goodyear in St. Marys and Teleflex in Van Wert and in Virginia at First Systems and Resources. Funeral Service will be at Miller Funeral Home, Celina Rd, St. Mary's, OH on Sunday December 23rd. Suggested memorials can be sent to Zion Lutheran Church in St. Mary's Ohio or a charity of choice.
