WASHBURN, Howard William Washburn

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - February 24, 2012)

The Rev. Howard William Washburn, age 89, of St. Marys, died Tuesday, Feb. 21, 2012, at Lima Memorial Health System. Howard was born on Oct. 27, 1922, in Hackensack, NJ, to Adlagunda Bellm and Russell LeRoy Washburn Sr., and he was raised by his grandparents, John and Christina Bellm. He was an all-state first baseman at Hackensack High School in 1941 and received a try-out with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Thoughts of professional baseball were interrupted by Pearl Harbor and the onset of World War II. Howard enlisted in the Army, serving in the South Pacific Theater, including New Guinea and Leyte. He was present when Gen. Douglas MacArthur landed on the beach at Tacloban, freeing the Philippines. After the war, Howard attended college on the G.I. Bill at Drew University in Madison, NJ, and Simpson College in Indianola, IA. While in college in Iowa, Howard served as a Methodist supply minister to two small churches in Iowa. After undergraduate school he was assigned as pastor of the Methodist church in Brighton, IA, while he began seminary at the Garrett Theological Seminary at Northwestern University. He transferred to a Methodist church in Jersey City, NJ, completing his divinity degree at Drew University, graduating summa cum laude and becoming ordained as an Elder in the Methodist church. Howard became interested in and widely known for the Methodist Church's ministry to older persons. He served as an administrator of Methodist Homes in Texas, New Jersey and California, and on the National Board of the Methodist Church in charge of homes for the aged. For the last 26 years, Howard had served as an administrative and special adviser to the president-CEO of Otterbein Homes in Ohio. Howard was a founder of Leading Age, the national organization of the not-for-profit services to the aging, receiving its highest award for service in 2001 and was a special honoree at Leading Age's 50th Annual Meeting in 2011. He received Otterbein's Outstanding Service to the Elderly award in 2001 and the United Methodist Association's prestigious Olen Oeschger Memorial Award in 2004, among many other awards. Howard was a leader and a mentor to many of the nation's caregivers to the elderly throughout his ministry. Howard is survived by his wife, Barbara; 2 sons, John (Denni) Washburn and Jim (Chris) Washburn; 4 stepchildren, Brian (Leanne) Jewett, Andy (Suzie) Jewett, Karen (Skip Lindo) Jewett and Glen (Wanda) Jewett; grandchildren; and great grandchildren; 1 cousin, Elaine Anderson, and 1 daughter-in-law Sherrie Vissotski. WOESNER, Nina Woesner

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 4 April 2015)

Nina Woesner, age 94, died peacefully in her sleep, on Thursday April 2, 2015, at Grandview Hospital, from complications due to pneumonia. Nina was born on Oct. 1, 1920, in Saroka, Rumania. She was the daughter of Vera and Ivan Gorbaniuk who preceded her in death. On Jan. 14, 1940, she married her beloved husband Johann Woesner, who preceded her in death, on Sept. 28, 1977. Johann and Nina left Rumania in 1940 during the Russian takeover of Rumania. In October on the way to Austria, Nina gave birth to her first child Erika Shroyer who lives in Dayton. In April 1942, Nina gave birth to her daughter Trudy Barney who lives in Eaton. Trudy's husband Gary passed away three years ago. In March 1944, she bore her first son Hans (John) who resides in St. Marys, with his wife Ruth Ann, and in July 1945, she gave birth to her son Gary who lives in Eaton with his wife Linda. In 1956 John, Nina and the children left Austria to immigrate to the United States. The Woesners were sponsored to immigrate to the U.S., by the Eaton Church of the Brethren. Nina was a lifelong member of the church and attended regularly until her health made it difficult to attend. Nina was a loving, generous grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother. She left behind four children who loved and cared for her dearly as well as 12 grandchildren, including Cindy (Larry) McCartney; Patty (Barry) Gillis; James Shroyer; Chris (Rob) Salyers; Lisa Preston; Robert (Lisa) Barney; Alicia Fine; April (Neal) Braun; Aaron (Terri) Woesner; Brian Woesner; Clint (Holly) Woesner and Karah Woesner. She is also survived by 27 great-grandchildren, and seven great-great grandchildren. Nina was a great cook and baker. She delighted in preparing huge dinners for her entire family sometimes serving two dinners at different times on the same day. It was only recently that her health prevented her from continuing this passion. No one could make better cabbage rolls than Nina Woesner. Few people in this world could make better cakes and pastries than Nina. Nina spoke several Slavic languages including Rumanian, Russian,

Polish and Ukrainian. She also spoke German and English. She had a wonderful voice, but unfortunately, few people had the pleasure to hear her sing. Funeral services will be Tuesday at the Eaton Church of the Brethren, 813 Camden Road, Eaton. Burial will be at Mound Hill Cemetery in Eaton. Girton Schmidt & Boucher Gard Funeral Home, 226 W. Main St., Eaton is handling the arrangements. Memorial contributions may be sent to the Eaton Church of the Brethren or Betty's Foundation (founded by her grandchildren for Alzheimer's Research), P.O. Box 6284, San Pedro, CA, 90734, or given online at BettysFoundation.org.
