YAHL, Rita Yahl

(Abstracted from the Evening Leader, St. Marys, Ohio - 16 July 2018)

Sister Rita (M. Melania) Yahl died at the Maria-Joseph Center in Dayton on Thursday. She had been a Sister of the Precious Blood for more than 75 years. The daughter of Joseph and Martha (Greve) Yahl, Rita was born in St. Mary on Nov. 9, 1922. She was the oldest of 12 children. On Aug. 3, 1941, Rita entered the Sisters of the Precious Blood and as a novice received the name of Sister Mary Melania - many years later she returned to using her baptismal name. Sister Rita taught 17 years in elementary schools in Arizona, North Dakota and Ohio. Then she enjoyed 25 years teaching home economics at Marion Local High School. While teaching at Marion Local, Rita assisted in the ministry at the Retreat House and Shrine. She made numerous baptismal gowns and doll clothes as well as other creative items. Sister Rita retired in 1986 and volunteered at the shrine continuing with her sewing skills, friendly hospitality and prayer. Rita remarked that she found these years full of grace - still serving and sharing life and prayer with her Sisters. In 2006 Rita moved to Salem Heights and was grateful for her life with her Sisters which included daily Mass, prayer and companionship. She admitted to being competitive and very much appreciated card games with her Sisters and family in spite of her diminishing eye sight. Preceding her in death were her parents and her brothers and sisters: Rose Braun, Irene Doseck, Jerome Yahl, Mary Braun, William Yahl, Anthony Yahl and Emma Clements. She is survived by her Precious Blood Sisters and her family: Joe and Connie Yahl, Gene and Janice Yahl, Bob Yahl, Clara Lenhart and numerous nieces and nephews. A Memorial Mass for Precious Blood Sister Rita Yahl, will be held at Salem Heights Chapel, 4960 Salem Ave., Dayton, on Monday.

She was born on November 5, 1926 near New Knoxville in Shinbone, Ohio to Homer & Grace Engle Kruse, who have preceded her in death. She met her soulmate, Roland C. Yinger, on a blind date. They wed on March 5, 1949 and were married for 57 years before he passed on May 11, 2006. We take great comfort in knowing they are together once again. She is survived by her two children, Rita (Mike) Borges and John (Jan) Yinger, both of Wapakoneta; eight grandchildren, Melinda (Paul) Wagner of Rock Hill, SC, Amy (Tony) Bobruk of Woodhaven, MI, Jeff (Allison) Keiber of Cleveland, Jenny (Jason) Brown of Bellefontaine, Brian (Katey) Yinger of Kent, Katie Yinger of Wapakoneta, Michelle (Blain) Gearing of Lima, and Michael Borges of Lima; eight great-grandchildren, Dillen King, Zenna Bobruk, Cameron Keiber, Lexey Brown, Brix Brown, Daxby Brown, Eleanor Yinger, and Kirkland Borges; a sister-in-law, Twila (Al) Eubanks of Urbana; five step-siblings, Robert (Peggy) Settlege, Lester (Helen) Settlege, Merilee (Roger) Eversman, Grace Roediger, and Joyce (Allan) Smith; a niece, Patty (Dave) Mann; and a nephew, Alan (Carol) Kruse. Lois was preceded in death by her brother, Lester (Leah) Kruse; a step-brother-in-law, Gene Roediger; and a niece, Jeanne Campbell. Born a farmer's daughter, Lois was raised to live off the land, able to take a chicken from barnyard to dinner table. She continued to grow tomatoes, pick strawberries, and can peaches for most of her life. Living through the Great Depression instilled in her a strong belief of wasting nothing. Once her children were settled in school, Lois started working in the cafeteria for Wapakoneta City Schools. Then for twenty years, she worked in admission and souvenirs at the Armstrong Air & Space Museum. Lois enjoyed all aspects of her time there, especially meeting Neil himself. A true Christian lady, Lois was a member of First United Methodist Church. She loved the old traditional hymns and was honored to travel to the Holy Land. Lois provided numerous pans of scalloped potatoes for funeral luncheons, her way of sharing her love of feeding people. Even through working for the Board of Elections, she manned the polls and served election dinners. Throughout her life, family was Lois's pride and joy. She was happiest when company was coming over, ready to pull cookies out of the freezer at a moments notice. Funeral services will be Monday, February 12, 2018 at the First United Methodist Church, Wapakoneta and burial will follow in Greenlawn Cemetery. Schlosser Funeral Home & Cremation Services, Wapakoneta is entrusted with the arrangements. Memorial contributions may be made to the Auglaize Acres Activities Fund or First United Methodist Church, Wapakoneta.
