ABELSON, Alan Abelson

(Abstracted from several internet sources, primarily Associated Press)

Alan Abelson, who spent 57 years as a writer, editor and chief columnist for financial news publication Barron's, has died at the age of 87. The author of the long-running Up and Down Wall Street column died Thursday of a heart attack, according to Sara Blask, a spokeswoman for Dow Jones, which publishes Barron's. Abelson had been on a medical leave of absence from Barron's for the past three months, The Wall Street Journal reported. "Financial journalism lost one of its leading lights today with Alan Abelson's passing," Ed Finn, Barron's editor and president, said in a statement. "For many readers, there can be no substitute for Alan's witty, wise and wonderfully written comments each week in Up and Down Wall Street. He touched so many lives and our thoughts and prayers are with his family." Abelson graduated with degrees in chemistry and English from City College of New York, and earned a master's degree from the Writer's Workshop at the University of Iowa. He joined Barron's in 1956 and became managing editor nine years later. During his years as editor, Abelson was noted for his training and mentoring of dozens of financial reporters and editors. Abelson began writing Up and Down Wall Street in 1966 and the column became a weekly mainstay of the publication for nearly half a century. He was still writing the column up until his medical leave. Randall W. Forsyth, who took over in Abelson's absence, will continue to author the column, according to the Journal.

ADAMS, Dr. Carlton Adams

(Abstracted by courtesy of the Waycross Journal Herald November 2, 2005)

Dr. Carlton Z. Adams, the south Georgia native who was a medical missionary pioneer and who became Sacramento's first black surgeon, died Sunday (Oct. 30, 2005) at his California home after a bout with cancer. He was 78. Dr. Adams was born and reared in Waycross, where he graduated from Center High School. After completion of college and medical degrees at Fisk University and Meharry Medical School in Nashville, he served as a military doctor before launching his practice in Bakersfield, Folsom and Sacramento. Among exemplary accomplishments was his appointment to the California Boxing Commission during the Reagan administration. He also was widely known for humanitarian and missionary activities at home and abroad, including the collection and delivery of surgical equipment and supplies in Third World countries. Dr. Adams' medical missions included service in impoverished communities of the Philippines and as a sojourner in several Caribbean and African nations, under sponsorship of the Women's Missionary Society of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. While serving in Liberia in 2004, he and his hosts survived a civil insurgency by hunkering down in the basement of an AME Church overnight and safely escaping the following day — walking over bodies of victims of the violence. He also delivered cargoes of general and medical supplies to Haiti and other HIV/AIDS ravaged countries after retiring from his California practice. According to his brother, Samuel Adams, of Waycross, "He seemed to be in relatively good health while in Brunswick last July attending the Adams reunion. He was upbeat and projected slides to show a large stone from a patient." His late brother, James, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.N. Adams, were Waycross business and religious leaders and charter members of the local NAACP. Survivors include his wife, Inez of Carmichael, Calif.; three daughters and a son, all physicians, Cheryl Adams Remson, of Louisville, Anne Marie Adams and Kathy Adams Berry, both of Sacramento, and Carlton Adams Jr., of Nashville. The funeral will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Assumption Church, 5057 Cottage Way, Carmichael, Calif. Morgan Jones Funeral Home, 4200 Broadway, Sacramento, will be in charge of arrangements.

ADAMS, Norman Adams

(Abstracted from the Douglas (GA) Enterprise Newspaper 24 August 2011)

Norman "Earl" Adams, age 73 of Jasper, FL, was called home to be with the Lord on Wednesday, August 17, 2011. He passed away at the VA Nursing Home Center of Lake City, after a long battle with Alzheimer's. Born in Chatterton, GA, on October 23, 1937, he was the only child of the late William Cary Adams and Betty Pauline Adams. Mr. Adams grew up moving between Douglas and Waycross as a child. At the age of 17 he joined the Air Force and spent the next 20 years serving his country. It was during this time he was stationed at Plattsburg Air Force Base in New York where he met the love of his life and married her on July 4, 1959. They spent the early years of their marriage traveling with the military and raising a family of three. They resided in five states and two foreign countries, Guam and the Panama Canal Zone before settling in Hamilton County, FL in 1976. He retired from the military in 1975 and enrolled in school in Valdosta. It was his exceptional grades that brought him to the attention of Occidental Chemical (PCS) in White Springs, FL, where he spent the next 25 years working as an electrician. In addition to his years at OXY, he also worked ten years of weekends for Anheuser Busch as an electrician. He retired from PCS in 2001. Not one to sit still, he then went on to work at Wal-Mart in Live Oak until 2004, only quitting when his disease made it impossible for him to continue. He loved fishing, gardening, and just watching the birds and squirrels in his back yard. He spent many hours outdoors with his dog Sissy not far away. A devoted husband and son, loving father and grandfather, he will be greatly missed. He was all about family. Everything he did was for his family. He was a Christian in every sense of the word. He was the type of man who would give you the shirt of his back if you needed it. He was loved and well-liked by many. He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Juanita A. "Daisy" Adams; his mother, Pauline Adams of Douglas; a daughter, Terry Cribbs (Elton) and two sons, Gary Norman Adams and Michael Scott Adams, all of Jasper, FL; two grandchildren, Matthew Earl Cribbs and Amber Nicole Cribbs of Jasper, FL; three step-grandchildren, Kellie Cribbs of Quitman, GA, Elton Cribbs, III and Christopher Cribbs, both of Longview, TX; and five great grandchildren. Funeral services were Saturday, Aug. 20 at the First Baptist Church in Jasper, FL. Interment was at Chatterton Cemetery near Douglas. Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association. Harry T. Reid Funeral Home of Jasper, Fla., was in charge of arrangements.

AIKENS, Augustus Davis Aikens, Sr.

(Abstracted from information courtesy of Greene Publishing, January 7, 2011)

Augustus Davis Aikens, Sr., 87, entered peacefully into eternal life with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Tuesday, Dec. 21, 2010 at Shands Hospital in Gainesville, Florida. He was born on Feb. 11, 1923, the firstborn child of Samuel Augustus Aikens and Minnie Roberta Morgan Aikens in Orlando. The family moved back to Madison when he was a toddler. Augustus ("A.D." / "Sonny Boy") accepted Christ at a very early age and became a member of High Antioch A.M.E. Church in the Cherry Lake community. From this strong Christian foundation, he made the Word of God the final authority in his life. He attended the public schools in Madison County and left Madison County Training School to enlist in the United States Army during WWII. After his honorable discharge from the military, he returned home enriched by the experience and with numerous stories about Fort Hood, Texas and Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. Later, A.D. moved to West Palm Beach and worked in the dry cleaning business with his uncle, Jeff Morgan. After living several years in West Palm Beach, he returned to Madison County and married his high school sweetheart, Lucile Balloon, on Sept. 5, 1946. He encouraged and supported her goal of obtaining her Bachelor's and Master's degrees as well as other teaching certifications. A.D. worked hard on the family farm growing vegetables, livestock, tobacco and cotton. Known for his "Grade A" summer produce, customers looked forward to his seasonal crops each year. He and Lucile instilled this strong work ethic in their children. Not only was he a farmer, but he also learned the trade of shoe repair, and was the neighborhood barber and repairman of both cars and farm equipment. Many can remember him for operating and managing the local Cargo gasoline station for many years. Prior to his retirement, A.D. worked as a security guard at various Valdosta locations. An active member of High Antioch A.M.E. Church, Bro. Aikens served as a trustee, class leader, church treasurer, Lay Organization member, and Pro-tem of the Steward Board. He was faithful and dedicated to all of his church responsibilities. His tireless efforts to make the sanctuary and church grounds ready for service were vitally important. He was delighted to work in the various capacities and took great pride in maintaining the church in excellent repair and made sure that it was completed in a timely manner. This concern and love for his church remained a priority until his death. His son, Chester, made it possible for A.D. to continue to worship at High Antioch during his past year and a half residency at Suwannee Health Care Center in Live Oak. He remained a dedicated and concerned member who chaired special programs, specifically Minnie Aikens Day. He also traveled annually to Jacksonville for Leona Daniels Day at the New Fountain Chapel A.M.E. Church until last May. A.D. also served, with pride, in the Pall Bearer's Society, where he held several leadership positions and was present at all quarterly and annual meetings until his health began to fail in 2009. Lucile, his loving wife of more than 63 years, preceded him in death on Jan. 8, 2010. A.D. and Lucile were the proud parents of five children whom they taught the necessities of life and the importance of an education. In order to build a strong foundation and prepare them for the world, he administered tough love whenever there was a need. A.D. is survived by his children: Barbara Aikens-Stephens, Orlando, Judge Augustus D. Aikens, Jr. (LaGrande), Tallahassee, Dr. Chester A. Aikens (Jean), Jacksonville, Rhonda Lucile Moore (Ronnie), Greenville and Katrina A. Aikens (Jerome), Madison. The delight of his life were his twelve grandchildren, whom he cherished: JaWanda, Arters "Tip", Jasmine, and Shaka Stephens, Orlando; Kaneitra S. Williamson, P.A. (Keith), Winter Haven; Rev. Augustus D. Aikens, III (Brandy), Tallahassee; Tara Jihad (Ismail), Atlanta; Adrienne Greer (Alfred), Summerville, S.C.; Brice Aikens, Esq., Orlando; Karel Aikens, Tallahassee; Chet and Chae' Aikens, Jacksonville. His great-grandchildren are Hope, Aniyah, and Madysen Aikens, Khalil, Khamal, and Ruth Jihad, Chance, Jade, Janae and Amari Stephens, Aiden, Alden and Ashton Greer. Other survivors to cherish his memories include sisters Mattie A. Bowles and Lillian A. Balloon (Rev. Dozier J. Balloon, Jr.), Madison; brother Daniel G. Aikens (Irene), Daytona Beach; sisters-in law, Lillie B. Nesbitt, Madison, Nellie Balloon, Tampa and Leola Garvander (Arne), Richfield, Minn. and brother-in-law, Ulysses "Buddy" Balloon, Tampa. Additional survivors who affectionately called him "Uncle" and regarded him as a second father figure include Phyllis P. Andrews, Dr. Stanley E. Pearson, Vanessa B. Hughes, Marvella B. Brown, ViElla B. Lindsey, Daniel G. Aikens, Jr., Martha A. Mitchell, Irene A. Taylor, Iris A. Singletary, Patricia and Joyce Sapp, and numerous other nieces, nephews, cousins and sorrowing friends. Because of A.D.'s commitment to his family, dedication to his faith and helpfulness to neighbors and friends, he will be deeply missed. His faith never wavered and he knew the power of prayer. His steadfastness has earned him a rightful place with the Master. For a job well done, may he now celebrate his victory in reaching his heavenly home, The family received guests on Monday, Dec. 27, from 5-7 p.m. at High Antioch A.M.E. Church in Cherry Lake. The funeral service was held on Tuesday, Dec. 28, at 11 a.m. at Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church, 576 West Dade Street in Madison, with burial at the High Antioch Church Cemetery. Ganzy Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

AKERMAN, Joe A. Akerman, Jr.

Joseph Alexander Akerman, Jr. of Madison, Florida passed away in Tallahassee on July 16, 2011 after a brief illness. Born in Orlando, Florida, January 30, 1930, he was the son of the late Frances Norman and Joseph Alexander Akerman, Sr. A graduate of Orlando High School in 1948, Akerman then graduated from the University of Florida in 1952. He studied art in Paris, France at the Grande Chaumere in 1956. He received a Master's degree from Rollins College in 1965. His academic honors include a Fulbright Fellowship to British Columbia, Canada where he taught in 1967-68 and a fellowship from the Institute of Southern History at the Johns Hopkins University where he studied history and received an advanced degree in 1969-70. Joe started teaching at North Florida Jr. College in 1965, retiring in 2003 after teaching several generations of students in the six-county area. He was an avid Gator fan and was proud of the scholarship monies he helped raise for students attending the University of Florida. His honors at NFJC include awards for his scholarship work in his writings and his lectures around the state. While teaching at NFJC, Joe began a part of his life that became very important to him - that was his association with the Florida Cattlemen and their families. In 1976, the Florida Cattleman's Association published his first book, Florida Cowman, a History of the Florida Cattle Industry. This was followed by American Brahman in 1982 for the American Brahman Association of Houston, Texas, and in 2003 he and son Mark collaborated on Jacob Summerlin, King of the Crackers, which was published by the Florida Historical Society. This book won the Carlton Tebeau award for the outstanding history book in 2005. In 2004, Akerman received the Dorothy Dodd award for lifetime achievement by the Florida Historical Society. He wrote numerous articles, and gave lectures all over Florida on these books and Florida history in general. Joe's memberships include the Republican State Committeeman for Madison County; Gideons International; Charter member of the Cracker Cattle Association; the Florida Cattleman's Association; the Florida Humanities Council; Madison County Historical Society; founding member of the Treasures of Madison County; and the Florida Historical Society. Akerman was an outdoorsman who loved quail hunting with his boyhood buddies, friends, and son Mark and grandson Cole. Joe was an active member of First United Methodist Church in Madison where he taught a Sunday School class, the "Misfits" and was Chairman of Missions for many years. Akerman served in the U. S. Air Force Reserve out of Homestead, Florida for a short time. Akerman married the love of his life, Princess, in 1958. Their children are Joseph Mark Akerman (Angie), Gainesville, FL; and Amy J. ALLEN, Marshall Allen

(Abstracted by courtesy of the Waycross Journal Herald August 17, 2007)

BRUNSWICK - Marshall Allen, 58, passed from this life at his home in Brunswick. He was born in Charlton County and was a resident of southeast Georgia for most of his life. He graduated from Nahunta High School, South Georgia College in Douglas and Valdosta State College. He served in the United States Navy for four years. He was an accomplished musician and a medical transcriptionist. He performed at various events at Sea Island, St. Simons Island and Jekyll Island, and was in constant demand as pianist in dozens of weddings and social engagements since his early teens. During his years of entertaining the public, Marshall made many friends and never met a stranger. He was blessed with a divine gift of comforting and encouraging those in his presence. Close friends and special family members will greatly miss Marshall's tender, caring heart and his ever-present compassion and dear companionship. He took great pride in his nieces and nephews and was a supportive and trusted friend to a multitude of people, all of whom considered him to be their "best" friend. All who had the pleasure of knowing Marshall admired his zest for life and his contentment with the simple pleasures that this life has to offer - a walk on the beach, a glass of iced tea at the Waffle House, quiet times watering his many flowers and plants and sharing in the accomplishments and milestones of friends and close family members. He was preceded in death by his father, Virgil Allen, his mother, Juanita Allen, and two brothers, James Allen and Bobby Allen. He is survived by two brothers, Maxie (Net) Allen, of Tallahassee, Fla., and Ken (Sandy) Allen, of Jackson, Mich.; a sister, Elaine (Gerald) Baxley, of Nahunta; and several nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews; and a very special niece, Amanda Allen Cruz, of Hortense.

AMMONS, Walter H. Ammons

(Abstracted from the Waycross (GA) Journal Herald Newspaper)

Walter H. Ammons died peacefully Tuesday (April 23, 2013). He was born in Brantley County, Hoboken, Nov. 25, 1917, a son of Wade Hampton Hickox Ammons. His grandfather was James B. Ammons, honorably discharged from the CSA after serving in the 4th Georgia Calvary Regiment Deo Vindice. He was orphaned by age 11 and entered the Civilian Conservation Corps in 1936 after working various labor and odd jobs in and about Brantley County. Discharged from the CCC in 1937, he immediately enlisted in the U.S. Army, his first duty station being Ft. Scriven. He then went to Panama in 1939 with Company L of the 33rd Infantry and stayed in Panama until January 1942 when he was transferred to Trinidad. He left Trinidad in the summer of 1943, went to Camp Wolters, TX and on to Camp Shelby, MS later that same year. In December 1944 his unit, the 259th Infantry III Army Corps went to Europe (France). When the war was over, he returned home, spending time at Ft. Knox, Ft. Meade, Ft. Dix and Ft. (Camp) Jackson. He then was sent to Camp Crawford in Japan, where he stayed for approximately six months. He returned home and spent about a year at Ft. Dix and Ft. (Camp) Jackson. He deployed to Korea in September 1952 and came home in the late spring of 1953, just prior to the end of that conflict. He was deployed to Germany in the late 1950s at Stuttgart, Germany. He retired from active duty in October 1965 at Ft. Jackson after 27 years of service. Upon retiring from the Army, he was employed by the maintenance/property department of the University of South Carolina, retiring from there in 1983. He lived his life by reason and a salubrious sense of justice. He endured, as many of his generation, numerous hardships in the time following the Great Depression. He learned valuable lessons he tried to pass on to his sons and daughter, foremost of which simple virtues are timeless qualities, essential for self-satisfaction and fulfillment. He lived by the "Golden Rule." His cadaver is a gift to the USC School of Medicine to be used and disposed of as they desire. The greatest generation is passing ..

ANDERSON, Mrs. H. J. Anderson

(Abstracted from the New Enterprise, Madison, Florida Thursday, December 11, 1902)

Mrs. H. J. Anderson (nee Alexander) was born in Charlotte, North Carolina. She died at the home of her son, in Bronson, aged seventy-six. She was the widow of Thomas J. Anderson. Her ancestors were among the early settlers of the old North State, and she was justly proud of them. Her great grandfather was one of the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration. A sword is in possession of the family that was carried during the Revolutionary War by a great uncle of Mrs. Anderson's who was a colonel in the continental army. The same sword did service for her husband, who served in the Civil War. Mrs. Anderson was a person of strong individuality; with fidelity to her church and integrity of life and purpose, she strove to do her duty. After raising her own children, many of them having preceded her to the better land, she tenderly reared her orphan grand-children. During her life she was a careful reader and had a remarkable command of history. She exemplified the highest type of true womanhood. Two children survive her, Mr. W. A. Anderson of Bronson, and Mrs. E. A. Miller of Cedar Key. She loved her old home, and was brought here to sleep beside her husband in the soil of Madison where we hope she rests well.

Humphrey. She married her husband, Dwight, in 1991 in Panama City, FL. Over a period of 22 years, she raised 5 children and set about teaching them compassion, practicality, and how to enjoy a good cup of coffee. Janice loved nothing more than to brag about her children. She was the family seamstress, best cook ever, and the "glue" that held everyone together. Her quick wit, incredible work ethic and perpetual optimism made her a joy to be around during the good and hard times. Her favorite advice was to tell us to "Take a nap and get some rest". Janice enjoyed spending time with her family, a good game of scrabble, cooking and more recently, exercise and fitness. Her children proudly remember her as loving and selfless, with a great sense of humor and a steadfast shoulder to lean on. Her grandchildren remember her as a wonderful "Mimi" who was always ready to give advice, listen to stories, or hunt Easter eggs with. She worked for the Florida Department of Agriculture for over 30 years as a Food Safety Inspector. A graveside service will be held on Tuesday, April 3, 2018, in Oak Ridge Cemetery in Madison, Florida. Immediately following the graveside services, a reception will be held at the home of Wendy & Gary Silvernell.

(Abstracted from the 19 December 2017 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

BLACKSHEAR — Daniel Roscoe Arowood Jr., age 80 of Blackshear, passed away Sunday (Dec. 17, 2017) at the Hospice Satilla Hospice House following a lengthy illness. Born in Blackshear May 7, 1937, he lived in Pierce County most of his life. He was a 1955 graduate of Fitzgerald High School and a 1960 graduate of Mercer University. Following his college graduation, he went to work for the Pierce County Board of Education where he taught English, French and art for 40 years. His hobbies included woodworking and gardening but most will remember his funny sense of humor — even until the end — it was one of the things he was most known for. After his retirement from education, he went to work for McDonald's where he was the greeter. Always in his overalls, conductor hat and corncob pipe, he maintained a smile and had a funny comment for anyone who saw him. He dearly loved his family and his pets and always had a special place in his heart for all children. He was a member of First Baptist Church where he was in the Men's Fellowship Sunday School Class. He was a son of the late Daniel Roscoe Sr. and Arva Rutland Arowood. He was also preceded in death by his infant son, Timothy Jay Arowood, all five of his sisters, Mary Arowood, Lillie Mae Luke, Pearly Bagley, Eva Edge and Della Taylor, and both of his brothers, Jesse Arowood and Roy Arowood. Survivors include his wife of 55½ years, Lawana Rowland Arowood, of Blackshear; two daughters and a son-in-law, Amy Ellis and Beth and Joe Steverson, all of Blackshear; a sister-in-law, Kathy Arowood, of Fitzgerald; a brother-in-law, H.J. Taylor, of Fitzgerald; four grandchildren, Danny Ellis, Christopher (Ashley) Ellis, Dustin (Kelsey) Cloud and Kady Cloud; three great-grandchildren, Brooke Ellis, Airiz Ellis and Ezra Ellis; and several nieces, nephews and other relatives. A memorial service will be Thursday in the Pearson-Dial Chapel. Memorialization will be by cremation. Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Association at www.alz.org, Hospice Satilla Hospice House, 811 Beacon St., Waycross, GA 31501, or to the First Baptist Church Building Fund, 670 Main St., Blackshear, GA 31516.
