INMAN, Leola Davis Inman

(Abstracted from the 6 April 2017 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

A celebration of life service for Leola Davis Inman will be held Saturday at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, 702 Arnold McKinney Drive. Interment will be in Hazzard Hill Cemetery. She was born Feb. 13, 1917 in Waycross to the late Walter Jerome Hall and Annie Mae Mitchell Hall. She was the youngest of two surviving children of this union. "Miss Leola," as she was affectionately called, attended schools in the Waycross Public School System (North Side Elementary School and Center High School). She was the last surviving member of Center High School class of 1935. She later received a diploma from Apex Beauty College in New York City in 1952. After completing high school, she married her childhood sweetheart, Walter Greene, and moved to Pittsburgh, PA. She later married Willie "Buddy" Davis, of Waycross. Both preceded her in death. In 1998, she married Mitchell Inman II, of Waycross. At an early age she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and became a dedicated member of Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in Waycross. There she served in a number of capacities including the Sanctuary Choir, Abraham's and Sarah's Choir, the Finance Committee, the Senior Citizen's Ministry, the Hospitality Ministry, the Young Women's Guild (YWG) and the Christian Women's Association (CWA) of which she served as president. She remained active in these organization until her failing health forced her to become inactive. In 1992 she received the Inez L. Broughton Award for outstanding commitment and dedication to the ministries and service of the church. This award was in recognition of being selected as the member of the year. She loved people, traveling and animals. She especially enjoyed working with children. She worked at English Kindergarten for a number of years prior to working for Concerted Services as a parent coordinator for the Head Start Program. In 1983 she received a plaque from Slash Pine C.A.A. Inc. for dedicated and loyal service. She retired from Concerted Services after completing 27 years of service. After retiring she often volunteered to work on committees that distributed food and clothing to needy families and was a monthly contributor to the Feed the Hungry Children campaign. She traveled extensively having visited the U.S. from coast to coast. Her foreign travels took her to Puerto Rico, the Bahamas, Canada, Nova Scotia, Germany, France, Austria, Belgium and Switzerland. After leaving Waycross for Pittsburgh after finishing high school, she lived in New York City, Connecticut and Columbus, Ohio before retiring to Waycross in the late 1950s to live. She restored her membership at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church upon her return and remained a faithful member until her passing on Wednesday (March 29, 2017) at Kindred Memorial Hospital in Green Cove Springs, FL. INMAN, Robert A. Inman Sr.

(Abstracted from the 25 September 2015 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

Former United States Army Airman Robert "Red" A. Inman Sr., age 89, received his heavenly wings and was inducted into the celestial air force Tuesday (Sept. 22, 2015) at Hospice Satilla Hospice House after a courageous battle against Parkinson's disease. He was born in Albany, GA Feb. 28, 1926, to John Stephen Inman and Eloise Slappey Inman. He was a great and honorable man who received much joy by talking and interacting with people. He was a devoted husband and father. Survivors include his wife, Ann W. Inman; a sister, Eloise Inman Jackson (Lawson) of Richardson, TX; and one brother, Dr. John S. (Willie) Inman Jr., of Albany. In addition to scores of friends, he leaves behind to grieve 2 daughters and 3 sons, including Bonnie Inman (Don) Dozier of Acworth, and Eloise Inman (Larry) Purdom of Waycross, as well as Robert Allen "Bud" Inman Jr., of Worley, ID, Stephen Williams Inman and Daniel Brosnan Inman both of Waycross; 6 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. He fought in the Pacific Theatre in World War II as a member of the 11th Airborne Division. He was an honorary member of the Waycross Fishing Club. He had a lifetime membership and was one of the oldest members of Childers Family YMCA where he went daily until he moved to Baptist Village. He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. He was educated at Emory at Valdosta College, The Citadel and the University of Georgia. After successfully owning Robert A. Inman, Inc., a men's high end clothing store in Albany, he moved his family to Waycross in 1968 and they began immediately contributing to their new hometown. He was president of the Waycross Beverage Co. In his final business venture, he and his son, Dan, were owners and operators of Package Outlet in Waycross. He loved the game of golf and loved playing at the old Okefenokee Golf and Country Club on Riverside Avenue where he was a longtime member. Many weekends were spent in the company of his wife and children at the popular club. When he passed away at Hospice Satilla, his room was actually beside the old pond located adjacent to holes 13 and 14, a fitting coincidence noted by his family at his bedside. On the afternoon of the day he died, he and his daughter Eloise, also an avid golfer, "replayed" the holes together. A Requiem Memorial Mass will be Saturday at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, 2011 Darling Ave. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. Joseph's Loaves and Fishes, Hospice Satilla and Baptist Village.
