MCCALL, John Goldwire McCall

(Abstracted from the Madison County Carrier, Madison, Florida, April 23, 2014)

John Goldwire McCall, born July 13, 1917 in Quitman Georgia, passed away April 8, 2014 in Vicksburg, MS. He graduated from high school in Madison, FL and from Stetson University in Deland, FL. He received the ThM and ThD degrees from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY. He served as a US Army chaplain in Patton's Third Army in Europe during World War II. He pastored churches in Florida, Kentucky and Mooresville, NC, before becoming pastor of First Baptist Church in Vicksburg where he served from 1952 to 1982. At the time of his death, he was Pastor Emeritus of First Baptist Church of Vicksburg. During that time he served as moderator of the Warren Baptist Association, on the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention and was President of the Mississippi Baptist Convention 1969-1970. He was also a member of the Radio and Television Commission of the Southern Baptist Commission. He served on the Mississippi College Board of Trustees for two terms. He was named Vicksburg/Warren County Man of the Year in 1975 and received the Service to Humanity Award from Mississippi College for 1975-76. Southern Seminary in Louisville, KY, honored him as Distinguished Alumnus in 1991. He was also named Mississippi College's Professor of the Year in 1991. After his retirement from First Baptist Church, Vicksburg, he taught several years at Boyce Bible College in Louisville, KY. He then came to Mississippi College where he served as professor of Christian Studies and a number of years as Chair of the Department of Christian Studies and later the Director of Church Relations. In 1998-1999, he took a sabbatical from Mississippi College and taught for eight months at the International Baptist Theological Seminary for Eastern Africa in Arusha, Tanzania. His second retirement was from Mississippi College in 2002. He continued to serve as an Interim Pastor at several churches, his last being Edwards Baptist Church where he served for 9 years, ending in February 2012. John McCall consistently preached the Gospel, proclaiming God's love, mercy, and grace for the world. He openly shared that anyone who accepted Jesus Christ as God's only Son, as their Savior would not perish, but have eternal life. He had many distinguishing Christian traits. However, perhaps the most pronounced was his Christian love, compassion, and service to his church membership and the whole community regardless of their religious denomination or status in life. In short, he was a humble, sincere, loving, forgiving Christian servant and gentleman. He was married to Wilma Grass McCall from 1949 until her death in 1983. He married Vicki Dunwoody McCall in 1984, and they made their home in Clinton. He was preceded in death by his parents and his two brothers, James Edward McCall and Guyton Bobo McCall. MCCAULEY, Rebecca Ernestine Alley McCauley

(Abstracted from the Voice, online news of Madison, Florida September 22, 2011)

Rebecca Alley McCauley went home to her Lord Jesus Christ on August 30, 2011, from Valdosta, Georgia. She was born to Carrie Ona Belle (Cook) and Ernest Calvin Alley on October 12, 1920, at home in East Lynne, MO, the youngest of four children and the only daughter. She grew up in Warrensburg, MO, with her beloved brothers Francis Leon, Louis Edward, and Overton Lawrence and attended what was then known as the "Training School" for student teachers at Central Missouri State where she was a member of the National Honor Society and often performed in the school musicals. She loved to swim and dive. She showed such an aptitude for dance that her teacher wanted her to go to New York and try out for Martha Graham's dance company. Her goal was, however, to be married and raise a family. She remained at home and after she graduated in 1937, went to Central Missouri State where she majored in music and met J.C. McCauley who was to become her husband on July 10, 1939, and to whom she was married at the time of his death in 1990. During World War II and during the time her children were in college, she sometimes worked, but her vocation was being a wife and wise mother. Surviving her are their daughter Barbara Lynne and their son Douglas Michael (Shayne), her grandchildren Andrew Uriah (Christy) McCauley, Sara Autumn (Roger) Noah, and Rachel Jane (Aaron) Henges. Becky has four great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. After she experienced a vision of Christ in the early 1950's, she turned her life completely over to Him. Like St. Monica, she brought her husband's heart to Christ by her gentle example of what a Christian really is rather than by exhortation and recrimination. She raised her children as Christians, again with a light hand. She and her husband were charter (founding) members of Park Hill Christian Church in Kansas City, Missouri. She directed the chancel choir, the children's and youth choirs, edited the church paper and handled outgoing publicity. She continued to write a "Here and There" column for the church paper for many years after she was no longer editing it. She taught Sunday School when asked and was the first woman elder of her church and the first woman chairman of the elders. In Madison, she was an associate member of First United Methodist Church. Becky never finished college; however, she was an intelligent woman who continued to love to read and learn throughout her life. She was especially interested in music and Christian studies and often enrolled in courses. She was spiritually mature and very knowledgeable. She was also a composer and arranger of sacred music. Much of her music has been performed. Service to her country and community included helping to found the Northland Community Choir in Kansas City, MO, serving as a Democratic poll judge, and being a member of Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of 1812, the (Parkville, MO) Afternoon Literary Club, and the Madison Literary Club. Her last years were spent with her daughter in Madison, FL where her friends and acquaintances were charmed by her cheerful and courageous personality. On October 16, her family and friends will celebrate her promotion to glory at First United Methodist Church in Madison. This memorial service will begin at 3:00 pm. The family requests in lieu of flowers that donations be made in her name to the American Heart Association or to the Madison First United Methodist Church's music fund.

MCCLAIN, Leonard McClain, Jr.

Rev. Leonard McClain, Jr. was born in Baconton, Ga., to the late Rev. Leonard McClain, Sr. and Mrs. Susie McCarthy McClain. He gave his life to Christ at an early age and was called home on April 5, 2011 in Gainesville. Funeral services were held on April 12, 2011 at 2 p.m. at Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Clyattville, Ga. Burial followed with military honors at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Madison. In 1953, during the Korean War, he was drafted into the U.S. Army where he served his country until 1955. He started working for St. Regis Paper Company while in Albany, Ga., then transferred to Lee in 1967. He was a caretaker for St. Regis Lands, where he was a guide for quail hunts. He trained the English pointers and setters that were used during these hunts. He was a devout Christian, always willing and able to talk about his love for Jesus. It was only fitting that, in his life, he would be ordained a minister. He was a devoted husband, father and family man. He always took the time to call friends and family. He will truly be missed. He married his wife, Willie Mae Brown on September 23, 1951, a union that lasted 52 years before her death in 2003. A son, Terry Lee McClain, also preceded him in death. He is survived by three sons, William James McClain of Lee, Aaron (Debra) McClain of Tampa and Curtis Edward (Teresa) McClain of Madison; a daughter, Barbara (Randy) Williams of Decatur, Ga.; a brother, Joe McClain of Newark, N.J.; a sister, Cora Lake, of Detroit, Mich.; five grandchildren, Aaron, Jr., Ashley, Terrance, Jeremy and Brandi; three great-grandchildren, Aaron III, Kennedy and Jordan McClain; also a special friend, Mc. Evelyn Wyche to whom the sons and daughter of Rev. McClain give a special "thank you." Beggs Funeral Home, Madison, was in charge of arrangements.

MCCLAIN, Margaret McClain

(Abstracted from the 22 March 2018 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

Margaret "Nell" McClain, age 84, died Tuesday (March 20, 2018) at Baptist Village Retirement Communities following an extended illness. She was a native of Ware County and lived most of her life in Ware and Brantley counties. She was the daughter of the late Green Rabon Sr. and Elizabeth Barnes Rabon. She was also preceded in death by a sister, Emma Jean Mathis, and two brothers, Jack Barnes and Green Rabon Jr. She was employed as a meat packer with Flanders Provisions for many years and also worked as a waitress with the Ware Hotel and the Steak House. She was a member of the 1950 graduating class of Waycross High School and Crawford Street Baptist Church. She and her husband were Foster parents for Ware and Brantley counties. Survivors include her husband of 50 years, Robert McClain of Waycross; two daughters, Linda Bennett and Kathy (Randy) Lynn of Waycross; two sons, Ricky (Pam) Taylor and Harry McClain of Waycross; five grandchildren, Rebecca (Sam) Johnson, Kevin Lynn, David Lynn, Zach Taylor and Paige Taylor, all of Waycross; three great-grandchildren, Jade Lynn, Bryce Taylor and Bentley Taylor; a sister, Sara Ann Brackin of Iron City, GA; and numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives. Memorial donations may be sent to Southeast Cancer Unit, 401 Pendleton St., Waycross, GA 31501 or to Baptist Village Retirement Communities 2650 Carswell Ave., Waycross, GA 31503. A funeral will be Friday at Music Funeral Home. Burial will be in High Bluff Cemetery.

MCCLURE, Charles Davis McClure Sr.

(Abstracted from the Madison County Carrier, Madison, Florida, July 2, 2014)

Tallahassee said good bye to one of its longtime residents on Tuesday, June 24, 2014. Charles Davis McClure, Sr. loved Tallahassee and was a devoted public servant. He possessed the admired qualities of honesty, industriousness and creativity. He was loved by many. McClure was born in Birmingham, AL on May 22, 1935 to Florina Davis McClure and John Robert McClure. His family, including his older brother, John Robert McClure, Jr., moved to Madison, Florida in 1937. His father practiced law in Madison with Florina's father, Charles E. Davis. They moved to Tallahassee in 1942 when his father accepted a job as Executive Secretary to Governor Spessard Holland. McClure was a 1953 graduate of Leon High School, where he was student Body President during his Senior year. Some of his early accomplishments are: the rank of Eagle Scout in The Boy Scouts of America and a delegate of Boys State, where he was elected Attorney General. Upon graduation, he attended University of Florida in Gainesville, where he earned his Bachelor of Science in Journalism in 1957. He made many life-long friends in his fraternity of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. After graduation, he joined the United States Marine Corp, entered Officer Candidate School in Quantico, VA serving for 39 months and was honorably discharged as a Captain. One of the highlights of his life was a memorable trip to Iwo Jima, traveling with many other fellow Marines. In his retirement, he enjoyed luncheons, each Monday, with other fellow Marine Veterans. After his military experience, he attended law school in St. Petersburg, FL graduating from Stetson Law School with his Juris Doctor. Professionally, McClure began his career as a General Counsel to the State Comptroller. It was his honor to work in that office during the time the property was being accumulated that would later become Walt Disney World. McClure had the special privilege of being introduced to Walt Disney and was proud of a signed photograph of himself with Disney. He proudly displayed this framed photo in his office for many years. Following that position, McClure practiced law in private practice with McClure, Wigginton and McClure for 6 years and was then appointed by Governor Reuben Askew to be a

Leon County Judge in August 1973. He was in that position for 11 years, having been re-elected three times. McClure was then elected as Circuit Judge in 1984 for the Second Judicial Circuit and served as Chief Judge from 1989-1991. In total, Charles McClure was a presiding judge for over 28 years. During that time, he was an innovative thinker, creating programs to reform wayward, teenage drivers. For instance, there are more than a few Tallahasseeans who, as teenage traffic offenders, had to give up their Friday or Saturday nights to open the doors of the TMH emergency room for ambulance crews carrying injured car crash victims. Additionally, Judge McClure was nationally recognized for his enforcement procedures of child support. He was interviewed on The Today Show with Connie Chung for his efforts against what became known as the "Deadbeat Dads". During court session, McClure's "tough justice" efforts collected watches, boats, jewelry and cash as payment from fathers who were delinquent in their child support. He was also featured in People Magazine showcasing his creative efforts at curbing crime. After retiring from the bench, he returned to private practice for several years. All totaled, Charles McClure, a third generation attorney, was a member of the Florida Bar, retiring from the bar after 48 years of loyal and distinguished service. In addition to his notable career, McClure was also civically active in the Tallahassee community. He was past president of the Tallahassee Kiwanis Club and the Leon County Tuberculosis Club. He was a member of the Jaycees, The Colonel's Club and the Exchange Club. As a past member of Goodwill Industries, he was the Director of the Big Bend area. Judge McClure was a long-time member of St. John's Episcopal Church. In his later years, as a cancer survivor, he volunteered at Big Bend Hospice, visiting patients and offering free legal help wherever needed. Judge Charles McClure is survived by his brother, J. Robert (Rae) McClure, Jr.; 3 children, Elizabeth McClure (Blaise) Benoist of Orlando, Charles D. (Stephanie) McClure, Jr., of Tallahassee, and Susan F. McClure, of Jacksonville. 3 grandchildren, Lauren McClure, of Greensboro, NC, and Luc and Juliette Benoist. Beggs Funeral Home, 3322 Apalachee Parkway, Tallahassee, FL 32311, is handling the arrangements. Memorial services will be Tuesday, July 1, 2014 at St. Peter's Anglican Church, 4784 Thomasville Rd, Tallahassee, FL 32309, followed by private interment. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Big Bend Hospice, 1723 Mahan Center Blvd, Tallahassee, FL 32308.

MCCLURE, J. Robert McClure

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, December 27, 1963)

The many friends here of J. Robert McClure were shocked Tuesday to learn that he had just died of a heart attack at his home in Tallahassee. He was 59 years old. Since 1949 the deceased had been first assistant state attorney-general. Mr. McClure was born in Pensacola and graduated from the University of Florida. For some time he lived in Birmingham where he was engaged in the insurance business and later moved to Madison, where he was admitted to the bar and became a member, with his father-in-law and brother-in-law, of the law firm David, Davis and McClure. He practiced law here for some years where he was also county prosecuting attorney and when Governor Holland was elected moved to Tallahassee to take a position with the governor. He is survived by his wife, the former Florina Davis, formerly of Madison, and two sons, Robert and Charlie McClure, both prominent Tallahassee lawyers and two grandchildren. Funeral services were held Thursday with interment in Roselawn Cemetery in Tallahassee.

MCCRAY, Jewel E. McCray

Jewel E. McCray, 77, peacefully went home to be with her Heavenly Father Sunday afternoon (May 29, 2011) at home surrounded by her family at her bedside after an extended illness. She was born in Patterson Feb. 25, 1934 to the late Sam and Georgia Bell Hollis. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She faithfully attended Zion Baptist Church, Blackshear, and St. James Baptist Church, Patterson, with her family. She received her formal education in the Piece County School System and graduated from high school in 1950. Later in life, she attended Waycross Junior College and Waycross-Ware Tech to obtain further training in the area of childhood education. On Oct. 22, 1953, she married the love of her life, Christopher C. McCray. Upon marriage, she relocated to Waycross where she gracefully became a devoted wife and loving mother to Cynthia McCray. To this union, two daughters were born, Linda and Christi. She was a caring mother whose love for her children was truly amazing. After moving to Waycross, she joined Greater Mount Zion A.M. E. Church where she served faithfully with her husband until her health began to fail. She was blessed with a beautiful voice, which she loved to use to give praise to her Heavenly Father. She was a faithful member of the Senior Choir and Mass Choir for many years, and served as a soloist, chorister and floral treasurer over the years. Her favorite songs included "Because He Lives," "Your Grace and Mercy," "We Are Our Heavenly Father's Children" and "I Love to Praise Him." She was called upon on many occasions to sing solos at various church programs, weddings and other events in Waycross and the surrounding area. For several years, she was employed at Goldkist Pecan Factory. Upon leaving Goldkist, she became a substitute teacher for the Waycross Public School System at Ava Street School. She later worked as a teacher's aide at Crawford Street School from which she retired in 1990. She was admired by her colleagues and adored by her many students who sometimes referred to her as "mother." She was also known for the beautiful bulletin boards she would design around the school. When her husband became the first African American mayor of Waycross in 1976, it gave her great pride to serve as the city's first African American first lady. She took her role as first lady seriously. She accompanied her husband to various events throughout the city and around the state and was always willing to make appearances on her husband's behalf. This service continued during her husband's two additional terms as mayor of Waycross. She also loved to cook for her family and friends. She was known around town for her famous sour cream pound cake, lemon meringue pie and cornbread dressing, among other delicious dishes. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Cynthia McCray; sisters, Rulie M. Griggs and Lillie Bell Spells, brothers Clarence Hollis, Roosevelt Hollis, Willie Hollis, Cleveland Hollis, Frank Hollis and Samuel Hollis. She was also preceded in death by a devoted niece, Madlean Brown and nephew, Melvin Griggs. She is survived by her loving and devoted husband of nearly 58 years, Christopher C. McCray, Waycross; two daughters, Linda Tolliver (Bobby) and Christi C. McCray, both of Tallahassee, Fla.; one granddaughter, Brandi

Threat (John); two great-granddaughters, Jahann Threat and Jaelah Threat, all of Waycross; four sisters-in-law, Levon Hollis, Patterson, Billie Thompson, Ormond Beach, Fla., Edna Anderson, Waycross, and Esther McCray (Charles), Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; one brother-in-law, Charles McCray (Esther), Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; numerous nieces and nephews including a devoted niece, Shirley Bell (Willie), Jacksonville, Fla., and devoted nephew, Cleveland Hollis (Catherine), Waycross; and a host of devoted friends, including Betty McDaniel, Minister Azuloy Burse and Betty Moody, all of Waycross. A home going celebration will be held Saturday at noon at Greater Mount Zion A.M. E. Church, 1085 State St., where the Rev. Roshelle McCrae is the pastor and will deliver words of comfort. MCCULLOUGH, Mary Jean McCullough

(Abstracted from the August 22, 2013 Waycross (GA) Journal Herald Newspaper)

Mary Jean McCullough, 76, died peacefully at her home on Monday (Aug. 19, 2013) after a courageous and hard fought battle with Parkinson's disease. She was a beloved wife, mother, mother-in-law, aunt, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend, and was surrounded by her family when she was united with her Lord and Savior. She was born July 29, 1937, in Talbotton, GA, and grew up in Greensboro, FL. She graduated as valedictorian of Greensboro High School in 1955. She married Howard Eugene McCullough on June 27, 1957 and shortly after their wedding, accompanied him to Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. This would begin her diligently serving by his side in ministry for more than 50 years. Their ministry together included service at Beatty Baptist Church in Pauls Valley, OK, First Baptist Church, of Orange Park, FL, and First Baptist Church, of Folkston, where they served faithfully for more than 30 years until his retirement in 1998. Her service at First Baptist Church of Folkston included singing in the choir, teaching Sunday School and directing the "Little Friends" kindergarten. She later taught music at Folkston Elementary School and worked at the Charlton County Board of Education for 26 years until her retirement in 2004. She adored her family and was happiest when surrounded by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She greatly enjoyed entertaining others in her home and particularly enjoyed cooking wonderful meals for them. She cherished her role as a pastor's wife and took great pleasure in serving others. She loved music and enjoyed using the talent God gave her to share His love with others. She was deeply loved by her church and community for all of her selfless acts of giving and for the humility with which she served others. She always remembered birthdays and anniversaries and was ready to offer encouragement and prepare meals for others in a time of need. She is survived by her devoted husband of 56 years, the Rev. Howard Eugene McCullough; her three children, Howard Eugene (Cindy) McCullough Jr., of Folkston, John Alan (Dawn) McCullough, of Woodbine, Joy McCullough (Bedford) Boyce, of Charlotte, NC; seven grandchildren, Adam (Ashley) McCullough and, of Fleming, SSgt. (Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, December 5, 1941)

Mrs. John D. McDonald, lifetime resident of Madison County, died at her home on North Parramore Street, this city, Wednesday night, of a heart attack. Mrs. McDonald had not been well lately, but was feeling better again Wednesday afternoon and was thought on the way to recovery just before the fatal attack came. Mrs. McDonald was born January 28, 1867, in the Macedonia section of Madison County, her maiden name being Zillie Ann Phillips. When a young woman, she was married to Mr. John D. McDonald of this county, who preceded her in death several years ago. Three children also died at early ages. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and family lived south of town for a number of years, then moved some thirty-eight years ago to Madison town, where they resided until death. Survivors are four children: Mrs. Roberta Tompkins of Jacksonville, Mr. J. O. McDonald of McVie, GA, Mrs. Estelle Shackelford of Jacksonville, and Mrs. W. C. Copeland, Sr., of Madison, also eleven grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren. The funeral will be held this Friday afternoon at Mt. Olive Cemetery.

MCDUGALD, Mr. Ivey LaFayette McDougald

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, January 2, 1942)

The many friends of Mr. I. L. McDougald, superintendent of the Fraleigh tobacco farm north of town, were deeply shocked to learn of his death, which occurred Monday morning. Mr. McDougald had been ill only a few hours, having waked up suffering with heart trouble or other ailment. A physician was called, and later Mr. McDougald seemed to show improvement, and then quietly passed away. Ivey LaFayette McDougald was born March 23, 1882, in the Greensboro community of Gadsden County, FL and lived most of his life in that section. He was engaged almost all of his adult life in tobacco growing and packing and in allied farming interests. He came to Madison in 1934 and was connected with the Fraleigh Tobacco Company from that time until his death. Mr. McDougald was married February 5, 1905, to Miss Ora Gray of Gadsden County, and she and three children, H. L. McDougald of Tallahassee, Mrs. A. M. Sunday of Quincy, and Carl F. McDougald of Perry, and five grandchildren, survive him. Interment was at Old Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in Gadsden County

MCDOUGALL, Erma Lee Quigg McDougall

(Abstracted by courtesy of Joe P. Burns Funeral Home, Perry, FL and Mayo, FL)

Erma Lee (Quigg) McDougall, "Gan" to those closest to her, passed from this life into the arms of Jesus, on October 20, 2009, at the age of 87 in Perry, Florida. She spent her last few weeks at home, surrounded by family and friends. Her life was marked by loving service to the Lord, dedication to family, joy and artistic expression. Erma Lee grew up in South Florida, the daughter of Miami Chief of Police and City Commissioner, H. Leslie Quigg and his wife Katherine Maud Lee Quigg. It was in Miami that she met her husband of 66 years, William (Bill) James McDougall III, who was a police officer in Dade County, where he stopped her for driving too fast. They married on December 31, 1940, the date chosen, according to her, so that the whole world would be celebrating with them. The McDougalls traveled all over the world after Bill became a pilot, and lived in a few faraway places, including Anchorage, AK and Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. In 1975, after retirement, they settled in Perry, Florida and managed the Perry Airport. Later, they worked together to start Perry Enterprise, a salvage yard on HWY 19 South. Erma Lee and Bill had three children: Donna (Mrs. Wendell) Rogers of Perry, Florida; William (Bill) McDougall IV (Phyllis) of Hernando Beach; and Jack McDougall (Susan) of Panama City. Erma Lee was a talented and recognized artist who painted and sculpted. Her home was filled with many treasures collected from her travels, as well as pictures she painted of the unique cultures and people she visited. She loved to be outside and spent many hours on the boat with her husband, snorkeling, fishing and diving for scallops. While living abroad, Erma Lee responded to the needs of the Americans living in the foreign citizens' section of Saudi Arabia by organizing a "follies" show, featuring bright costumes with lively song and dance routines, which she directed and appeared in for many years. She was happiest in life serving others and loved to entertain her family. Gan was always cooking a big meal, or encouraging everyone to play a game like scrabble, badminton, or cards. Even to the end, she kept her caregivers laughing with her funny stories, positive demeanor and candid responses to questions. Erma Lee was preceded in death, by her husband Bill, to whom she was truly dedicated. She will be dearly missed by the large family that she leaves behind, including her children, as well as her nine grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren. They all love Gan and look forward to seeing her again in Heaven. Erma Lee was truly a Proverbs 31 woman; virtuous, industrious, caring and strong. Services will be on Sunday, October 25 at the First Baptist Church in Perry. Interment will be held at Pineview Memorial Gardens, where she will be laid to rest beside her husband. Joe P. Burns Funeral Home in Perry will handle the arrangements.

MCGALLIARD, Teresa Charlene Brock McGalliard

(Abstracted from the Whiddon-Shiver Funeral Home, Thomasville, Georgia, 29 April 2017)

On April 29, 2017 Teresa Charlene Brock McGalliard passed through the pearly gates of heaven to be in the presence of her Lord and Savior. Born in Bainbridge, GA on May 23, 1945 to the late J. G. and Merline Brock. She was raised in Cairo, GA and a graduate of Cairo High School in 1963. On April 24th, 1964, she married Russell Franklin McGalliard. They had two daughters, Teresa and Tina. On November 11, 1989, she received a heart transplant. She was given only a five percent chance of surviving one year, but miraculously survived 27, making her the longest living heart transplant patient at Emory Hospital. Because of the selfless act of organ donation, she was given time to travel the world, share her passion for cooking, and establish her restaurant called, "Simply Delicious" at the Neel House. She saw her daughters graduate, marry, five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. She loved her dogs, any blooming plant, shopping, and "the little red house." Nothing made her happier than being with her family. She always demonstrated an unquestionable, unconditional love. She was loyal and generous to all. She was a devoted wife, extraordinary mother, and an amazing Ammie. She was the rock of her family that can never be replaced. Charlene is survived by her husband of 54 years, Russell Franklin McGalliard; daughter, Teresa McGalliard (Robert) Wilson of Greenville, SC, daughter, Tina McGalliard (Tim) Phillips; grandchildren: Zack Phillips (M.E. MCINNIS, Jeffrey Lynn McInnis

(Abstracted from information courtesy of Joe P. Burns Funeral Home, Perry, FL and Mayo, FL, January 26, 2014)

Jeffrey Lynn McInnis, of Perry, Florida, passed from this life on Sunday, January 26, 2014, after an extended illness with pancreatic cancer. He was 66 years of age and had lived in Perry since 1972. He was born in Lake City, Florida, on November 24, 1947, to Clyde Christopher McInnis and Virginia Hall McInnis (both deceased.) His family lived in O'Brien, Florida for most of his life. While a student of Branford High School, Jeff played varsity football and was involved with many other sports; an interest in athletics that continued into his university years and beyond. He attended Santa Fe Junior College, Florida State University, and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education from the University of West Florida. He later received a Masters of Science in Computer Education from Nova University in 1985. Upon obtaining his Bachelor Degree, Jeff was employed by the Taylor County School Board, where he worked for thirty-five years. Jeffrey first taught physical education classes, and later taught science classes, agri-business, and computer education. He enjoyed coaching the track team and junior varsity football. Jeff was active in the Taylor Education Association for several years, serving as a school representative and later as President of the TEA. He served several times on the Bargaining Team and was instrumental in drafting the first employment contract between the Taylor County School Board and the teacher's union. He planned Field Day activities at the different schools where he taught, helped teachers with their technology problems, produced documents, certificates and programs for school personnel, maintained computer and technology equipment, prepared and taught computer in-service, and produced the early morning television show at TCES. During his career as an educator, Jeffrey touched the lives of thousands of children and many adults. Jeff married Iris Ellison McInnis of Perry on August 5, 1972. Jeff and Iris have 2 children, Logan Christopher (Gloriann Wilson) McInnis of Crawfordville, FL; and Regan Lynn (Andrew Thomas Gross) McInnis of Chiba, Japan. Jeff and his family enjoyed the easy pace of small town living, the friendly people, and the beauty of this area. He enjoyed living close to all the family relatives and his church family at Spring Warrior Church of Christ. Jeff enjoyed traveling and would take his family camping and on road trips during breaks and summer holidays. Jeff also enjoyed fishing or as he called it, "drowning worms." He was a fan of FSU and enjoyed watching college and professional football games any time they were on television. Jeff loved and owned vintage muscle cars, enjoyed riding motorcycles as a younger man, and had recently purchased his dream car - a Charger SRT Super Bee in header orange!! Jeffrey was known for his quirky sense of humor, his love of family, his dependability and practical nature. He was enrolled in a clinical trial at the Winship Cancer Institute at Emory Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia at the time of his passing. Jeff hoped that his ordeal would benefit others stricken with this disease. The memorial service will be Saturday, February 1, 2014, at Burns Chapel in Perry. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations made to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network.

MCINNIS, Marguerite Kelley McInnis

Marguerite Kelley "Miz Mac" McInnis, 92, of Waycross, passed away Wednesday (June 17, 2009) at Embracing Hospice in Snellville, with her daughter, Diane, by her side, after a life well lived. She lived with her daughter, Diane, and son-in-law, Andy Kearson, for the past five years in Lawrenceville. A native of Gibson, she lived in Waycross for 60 years. She was the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. James Louis Kelley, of Glascock County. Her mother was the former Louise Bradshaw, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Thomas Brice Bradshaw, of Warrenton. Her mother was a graduate of Lagrange College and a teacher in Gibson. Marguerite was the eldest of four children. Prior to her graduation as valedictorian of Warrenton High School, with perfect attendance, she was a member of the Beta, 4-H, drama, Latin and French Club. She was also a participant in journalism, having short stories, poems and articles published under her by-line. She received a diploma in Allied business subjects from Hurst Business College in Augusta, graduated from South Georgia College, Douglas, and Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, with a BS degree in education. She received her Master of Arts degree from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn. Her outstanding academics rank at Vanderbilt placed her in Delta Pi Epsilon Honorary Society. A former Ware County business education instructor, she taught for 34 years, 29 in Ware County before retiring in 1974. She began her teaching career at Hoboken High School in 1937. From there she taught at Gordon High School, Camilla High School, Fitzgerald High School and Richmond Hill High School, known as one of the Henry Ford Schools since it was modeled after the one in Dearborn, Mich. Folk dancing and religious services were an integral part of the Ford School. She danced with Henry Ford on one of his visits to the school. She began teaching business education at Wacona High during the administration of Superintendent T. L. Everett Sr.; her instructional duties, however, were not limited to bookkeeping, general business, shorthand and typing. They also included all grades in English and 10th grade mathematics. While at Wacona for more than 11 years, she assisted in publishing the Ware County Teachers newspaper, the "Eye-Opener," and the "Wacona Wheel," the school's newspaper. She joined the Ware County High School faculty when Wacona and Waresboro consolidated in 1958. At this new school she, along with teaching a multitude of courses, sponsored the Future Business Leaders of America and was secretary of the Vocational Teachers Association for six years. She was heralded for her unrelenting honesty which she tried to instill in her students. She was a member of the Georgia Business Education Association (director, two years; secretary, four years), PTO National Education Association, Ware County Classroom Teachers Association, Political Action for Classroom Educators, (PAGE) Georgia Educators Association, the Business and Professional Women's Club and Kappa Delta Sorority. The commercial instructor also served as reporter for the Ware County Georgia Education Association. She was an "emeritus" member of the Ware County Retired Teachers Association. She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, where she taught first grade Sunday school for 15 years. She was a member of the Willing Workers-Mary Martha Sunday School Class and the Women's Society of Christian Service. Formerly, she taught her W. S. C. S. Missionary circle. She served as children's secretary for the W. S. C. S. and worked with the United Methodist Youth Fellowship for many years. She was a McInnis recipient of a life membership pin from this organization. Her family was her life. She loved taking trips to places of fun and interest. She delighted in going to family reunions with her daughter, Diane, son-in-law, Andy, and those grandchildren, Bill and Jennifer. She was a loyal and devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend, who will be fondly remembered for her big heart and fun-loving spirit. She was a true American; a steel magnolia. Her generosity and selflessness was a beautiful gift. She was preceded in death by her brother, James Louis Kelley Jr. (age 5), and a sister, Mary Kelley Gamble, who was a sixth grade teacher at Smart Pope Livingston in Jacksonville, Fla. She was also preceded in death by a close family friend, Louise Kearson, who was like a sister, from Waycross. She is survived by her daughter, her only child, known as the little McInnis girl, Diane McInnis Kearson (husband Andy), of Lawrenceville; a grandson, William A. Kearson Jr. "Bill" (wife Wanda), of Jacksonville, Fla.; a granddaughter, Jennifer Kearson, of Lawrenceville; a sister, Gloria Hilton, of Ocala, Fla.; three nieces, Donna Hilton Brasher, of Ocala, Fla., Vickie Gamble Young (husband Ralph), of Chicago, Ill., and Kelli Gamble Tankersly, of Jacksonville, Fla.; four nephews, David Hilton, of Gainesville, Ga., Buddy Gamble, of Tampa, Fla., Jay McVey, of Chicago, Ill., Todd McVey, of Panama City, Fla.; a great-granddaughter, Ashley Renee Kearson; two great-grandsons, Nicholas "Nick" Andrew Kearson and William Alexander "Alex" Kearson, of Jacksonville, Fla.; and two cousins, Betty Dittmer (husband Herb) and Volusia Houck (husband Perry), of Augusta. A funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Trinity United Methodist Church. Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery. The family will receive friends at Music Funeral Home Saturday night from 6 until 8. The Willing Workers-Mary Martha Sunday school classes are asked to meet at the Church at 1:40 p.m. to serve as honorary pallbearers. Sympathy may be expressed by signing the online registry at www.musicfuneralhome.com.

MCINTOSH, Glenda Rose McIntosh

(Abstracted from the 26 April 2017 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

Glenda Rose McIntosh died Sunday (April 23, 2017) after a brief illness. She was a spry 74 years young despite battling dementia for the last 3.5 years. She was born Oct. 15, 1942 in Jacksonville Beach, FL, to the late Lucy and Jeff McIntosh. During her life, her professions have ranged from telephone operator with Southern Bell (now AT&T) from 1960 through 1973, volunteer with the Hospital Auxiliary at Charlton Memorial Hospital, homeroom mom during various grades of her daughter's school years (much to her daughter's chagrin, at times), band mom (again, much to her daughter's chagrin), funeral home secretary, caterer, "Queen of Gingerbread Houses in Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia," and an excellent cook. She graduated from Hilliard High School in 1960 where her fellow classmates voted her "Friendliest" and "Most Dramatic." She also proudly became a Girl Scout at the age of 40, which really is a grand accomplishment considering she beat breast cancer just a few years prior. She spent most of her life in Hilliard, FL, but most recently lived in Yulee, FL. She had a zest for life that can only be expressed by the colorfulness in her personality. She was full of humor, loved to laugh and loved to make others laugh. Her favorite pastime was to dress up in outlandish outfits and go to family reunions uninvited. Other family's reunions. Mind you, they were family friends, but you get the idea. Nothing like just showing up dressed like a stranger at an event you aren't supposed to be at to see what kind of reaction you will get. That was Glenda. Or, better yet, putting on the make-up thicker than Tammy Faye ever could, stuffing her bra with Kleenex and answering the door when her teenage daughter's date arrived. (Now you understand the chagrin!) When she wasn't dressing up, she loved to cook and bake and share the goodies with neighbors and her daughter's classmates. She had a generous heart and a gracious smile. Once you met her, she was hard to forget. Despite the silliness, down deep she harbored a serious love for God and Jesus Christ. Inside her Bibles are pages and pages filled with hand written notes of scripture and prayers for others. She is survived by her daughter Lucy Kwapnioski-Nadeau (Greg Peistrup, partner), of Yulee, FL; a sister, Melba Powers (the late Ralph), of Hilliard, FL; brothers, Grady (Nancy) McIntosh of Hilliard, FL, Leo McIntosh of Jacksonville, FL, and Tommy McIntosh of Lutz, FL; ex-husband, Gene Kwapnioski; and several nieces and nephews, great-nieces and nephews, great-great-nieces and nephews, aunts and cousins. Memorialization will take place by cremation. A memorial service is scheduled for Friday at Shepard Roberson Funeral Home, 526 Oakwood St., Folkston. Donations in memory of Glenda may be made to River City Community Animal Hospital, P.O. Box 551344, Jacksonville, FL 32255.

MCKINNON, Leon F. McKinnon

(Abstracted from the Douglas (GA) Enterprise Newspaper 22 July 2016)

Mr. Leon F. McKinnon, age 92, of Crescent City, FL, passed from this life on Sunday, July 17, 2016. Mr. McKinnon was born in Atkinson County, GA, on November 2, 1923, to the late Pauline Stoeffler McKinnon Pheil and Rural McKinnon. After being discharged from the Navy following WW II, he and his wife, Ruth, made their way to Putnam County. Following in the steps of other family members, he opened a small shoe repair shop in Crescent City. It was not long before this small repair shop developed into a full department store called Leon's. A natural businessman, several of his business ventures included a hardware store, peach farm, and KOA campground. He went on to own and operate the Family Shoe Store (Red Wing Shoe Store), McKinnon Home Furnishings, and McKinnon Furniture Outlet, all in Palatka. But his family and friends will most remember his joy of life which included his ability to tell a funny joke, the way he loved to dance and how he began most mornings with a song. Way up into his eighties he could be seen riding around town on his bicycle. His favorite part of the ride was zipping down the hill in Hubbard Park, racing towards the lake. He was preceded in death by his wife of 61 years, Ruth Harper McKinnon. Survivors include his daughter, Barbara (Robbie) Scholl of Crescent City; son, Gary (Kerry) McKinnon of Palatka; five grandchildren, Monica (Ben) Feit, Paige Nettles Thomas, Troy (Cassie) Nettles, Kacy (Jeremy) Morris, and Gary F. McKinnon, Jr.; fourteen great grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews. Mr. McKinnon has donated his body to the University of Florida's Anatomical Board to be used in medical education. There will be a private memorial service held at a later date. Donations to Hospice of the Nature Coast are greatly appreciated. Arrangements are under the careful care of Clayton Frank and Biggs Funeral Home, Crescent City, FL.

Dewey attended Greenville High School until 11th grade and continued his education at Mainland High School in Daytona Beach, FL where he later graduated in 1947. Not only did Dewey serve as an auto mechanic for the United States Army during the Korean War from January 30, 1951 until January 16, 1953, he also worked as an auto mechanic for Aucilla Christian Academy. Dewey seemed to have a heart for mechanics, also working for Cantey Motors in Madison, FL, working as a fleet mechanic for a local dairy company, and serving as a school bus mechanic for Volusia county schoolboard. Additionally, Mr. McLeod was not only a Boy Scout leader, he also helped the founding of the Hamburg-Lovett Fire Department and served as the president for countless years. Aside from his work life, Dewey was married to the beautiful Mildred Starling McLeod. The lively two wed on August 12, 1951 and shared 57 years of marriage till her untimely death in 2008. Dewey was loved as a husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He will never be forgotten and he will be sorely missed not only by his family, but by the community. Beggs Funeral Home in Madison is handling the local arrangements. He will be interred at Shady Rest Cemetery in Holly Hill, FL. The family asks that any donations should be sent to the Hamburg-Lovett Fire Department at 876 NW Bailey Grade Rd. Greenville, FL 32331 in his name.

MCNEAR, Anderson McNear Jr.

(Abstracted from the 6 March 2017 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

Sergeant First Class, Army (Retired) Anderson "Mac" McNear Jr., of Brunswick, passed away Wednesday (March 1, 2017) at Southeast Georgia Health System, Brunswick. He was born May 29, 1936 in Waycross to the late Anderson McNear Sr. and the late Mary Jean Cooper McNear. He loved and honored his parents until the day he transitioned from this life to his heavenly reward on Wednesday (March 1, 2017). Celebrating his life and legacy are his wife of 57 years, Lucille, and his daughter, Cecilia (Maurice) Hicks. He is also survived by three grandchildren, Adrian, Alexis (Jovan) Rivers, and Maurice (Kerri) Hicks Jr. He was the great-grandfather of Curtis Matthew Patrick. He leaves four sisters, Marva Diane Amos, Macon, Selena Elaine McNear, Waycross, Cheryl Jacqueline Williams, Valdosta, and Sylvia Renee Ramey, Marietta. Everyone that he met knew that he had four sisters! He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins to cherish his memory. He is survived by two brothers-in-law, Mr. Lewis (Connie) Ramsey and Mr. Earnest (Veronica) Ramsey. One of his legacies was his love for his family. He learned from an early age how to take care of his family. He helped support his family as young boy of nine years old when his father became ill by picking cotton, cropping tobacco and various odd jobs helping his uncles and other close relatives and friends. He made certain that his wife and daughter wanted for nothing and worked hard to make certain that they did not. He attended Waycross Public Schools and graduated from Center High School where he played saxophone in the high school band. He and three other students formed a brotherhood group known as "The Dukes of Ware." As a teen, Mac taught music lessons to other students in various counties in the southeast Georgia region. He began visiting Brunswick and St. Simons Island on the weekends and summers. He lived and worked with his uncle, Ira McNear, who was the bell captain at the King and Prince Hotel. He was a bell boy. He also worked with his father and uncles in their many businesses. He attended Morris Brown College (University) where he majored in music and was a member of the Marching Wolverines in Atlanta. It was there where he began working in the insurance industry. He joined Pilgrim Life Insurance Company of Augusta. His next legacy, a solid work ethic, was not the only good thing that Mac acquired while on St. Simons Island. He met and married the love of his life, his "Baby," Lucille Marilyn Ramsey on April 16, 1959. That same year, he joined the United States Army. Following basic training at Ft. Jackson, SC, they moved to their first duty station at Ft. Leonardwood, MO. Playing the sax in the Army band was one of his greatest achievements. Through the Army, he honed and perfected his music craft at various duty stations in the United States (Georgia, Texas and Virginia) and abroad (Frankfurt and Nuremberg, Germany). He often served as assistant band director and had the opportunity to direct the Army band on several occasions. He was the band director of the 2nd Army Calvary Band in Germany, the Netherlands and France. After retiring from the Army in 1979 at Ft. Gordon, GA, he pursued his next passion. He became a fulltime insurance agent. He started again at the Pilgrim Life Insurance Company in Augusta. He and Lucille relocated to their present home in Brunswick where he worked for both the Delta Life Insurance Company and Jim Walter Homes. He won many local, state and national accolades because of his hard work ethic. He later founded the Anderson McNear Jr. Insurance Agency and became more renowned in the state of Georgia. Throughout his life, he was a true people person. He was the optimal salesman. He sold Presto Pride Cookware in the early 1960s. Lucille still has several pots and pans from that set! He and his friends operated Soul and Mexican food ventures. He also moonlighted as a taxi cab driver in Augusta, where he made many friends. He was instrumental in helping widows of service members secure VA benefits. He was known in his community as someone who would go the extra mile to help family and friends. As a youth, he was a member of Greater St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church in Waycross. He gave his life to Christ in his home in Brunswick and was a faithful member and of the historic the First African Baptist Church on St. Simons Island. He served as an usher for many years. He was a member of the American Legion in both Augusta and Brunswick. He loved listening to gospel, jazz and soft rhythm and blues music. He loved all of his dogs from Chief in the early 1960s to his current puppy, Wiley. "It is foolish to mourn the men who died. Rather we should thank God that such men lived." George S. Patton, American Soldier. A funeral will be Wednesday at First African Baptist Church, St. Simons Island. Interment will follow in Village Cemetery, St. Simons Island. Hall, Jones and Brown Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

MCPHERSON, Lloyd McPherson Jr.

(Abstracted from the February 20, 2014 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

A celebration of life service for Lloyd McPherson Jr. will be held on Saturday at St. Paul New Life Outreach Ministries, 1736 Georgia Ave. Burial and committal service will follow in Hazzard Hill Cemetery. The late Lloyd McPherson Sr. and Beulah McPherson gave birth to their first born son, Lloyd McPherson Jr., Oct. 20, 1925. The proud parents were also blessed with two other children, Spencer "Pete" McPherson (Dorothy) and Eloise "Peggy" McPherson Baker (deceased). Lloyd enjoyed a fun-filled life with his siblings, parents and loved ones. He attended and graduated from Center High School in Waycross and served proudly in the United States Navy during World War II. He often recalled how the United States won the war when his commanding officer requested him to get a broom and hoist it high because the battle had been won and it was a clean sweep. And that's how Lloyd's life has been, "a clean sweep!" He too has won the battle and was his own champion and marched to the beat of his own drum. He was a deacon at St. Paul New Life Outreach Ministry, a member of the American Legion and retired from the former Atlantic Coast Line Railroad (CSX). He loved poetry, arts, traveling, dancing, singing and could speak French. He loved the Lord with his entire heart and was a blessing to the community and his family. His father, Lloyd Sr., would often chant that the Lord gave him two engineers because Lloyd Jr. built his own home and drew the blueprints. He was a very strong man, proud leader and father. He and Forrestine Lumpkin-McPherson had just celebrated 57 years of marriage on Feb. 8 and spent their last Valentine's Day together last week. Lloyd expressed his love for his family and community that day and stated that "the dead in Christ shall rise again and that you will see me again!" God blessed the fruit of his loins by giving him 7 beautiful children. He had 4 children with Odessa M. Garner: Charles McPherson (deceased), Brenda M. Burse, David L. McPherson and Linda M. (Robert) Howard. He had 3 children with Forrestine McPherson: William J. (Ashley) McPherson, Dr. Reginald R. (Sharon) McPherson and Dr. Kim M. (Kyle and Raymond) Greene. On Friday (Feb. 14, 2014), God called him from labor to reward. He also leaves to cherish his memory 2 brothers, Spencer (Dorothy) McPherson; J.E. Walker; 1 sister, Helen L. (Jene') Walker; his aunts, Pauline Pitts and Bernice Luther; 1 uncle, Donald Hill; 13 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great-grandchildren; and a host nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives. Funeral arrangements are entrusted to Perry Brothers Funeral Home.

During his 36-year career with Eastman, he had 15 different positions at the company with increasing responsibilities, retiring in 1996 as a vice president and general manager of the Fibers Business Organization. While in Kingsport, he was a member of Society of Plastics Engineers, Association for Textile Technology, Chemical Manufacturer's Association, International Trade Committee, Industry Sector Advisory Committee to U.S. Chamber of Commerce on International Trade, Kingsport Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club, United Way, Boy Scouts of America and First Broad Street United Methodist Church where he was an active participant in many areas of church life. He had a 30-year involvement with Boy Scouts of America serving as Cubmaster, district chairman, council vice president and Sequoyah Council president, 1993-1995. As council president, he guided a $2.2 million capital campaign targeting improvements of camp facilities, creation of an endowment fund and building a new, multi-purpose Scout Service Center. After retirement to Dataw Island, SC, in 1996, as an avid mariner, he and his wife, Dianne, spent six months each year of the first 10 years of retirement on their boat, "Rambler," with extensive travel along the U.S. coast and the Central Exumas, Bahamas. He was a tireless fisherman and enjoyed being on the water and outdoors as much as possible. He is survived by his wife, Dianne Roller McTier; 4 children, Robert F. (Jane) McTier Jr., Bill (Sara) McTier, Betsy (John) Holland and Lynda (Paul) Hammes; grandchildren, Caroline and Andrei' McTier, Megan (Chris) Methvin, Morgan McTier, Kirsten and Katelyn Holland, Brandon and Emily Hammes; and 1 great-grandchild, Charlotte Methvin; 1 brother, William E. (Marian) McTier Jr.; 1 sister, Susie A. (Jack) McTier; along with several nieces and nephews. Family and friends are invited to share in a celebration of his life Friday at Baptist Church of Beaufort, Beaufort, SC. Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery, Waycross, Saturday. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations in his honor to Baptist Church of Beaufort, 601 Charles St., Beaufort, SC 29902; Friends of Caroline Hospice, 1110 13th St., Port Royal, SC 29935 or Boy Scouts of America. Anderson Funeral Home, of Beaufort, SC, is assisting the family.
