NALLEY, James Harold Nalley Jr.

(Abstracted by courtesy of the Waycross Journal Herald October 1, 2009)

James Harold "Skip" Nalley Jr., 57, a former city manager of the Waycross, died Tuesday (Sept. 29, 2009) following a battle with Parkinson's Plus disease. He will be truly missed, said a family spokesman. He graduated from the University of West Georgia in 1974 with a bachelor of arts in political science and a bachelor of arts in geography. He also attended the University of Southern Mississippi for a graduate fellowship in geography and area development. He was a member of the Farm Fraternity. He served as a cost and planning analyst for the Southern Company in Birmingham, Ala., from 1978 to 1980. He then served as a cost estimator in Research and Development for the Southwire Company in Carrollton. From 1982 to 1987, he served as the City-County Programs Coordinator for the City of Carrollton and Carroll County Commission. He went on to serve as the city manager in Thomaston. He worked in Cartersville, Perry, Jefferson and Waycross during his tenure as a city and county administrator. He was a member of the Georgia City-County Management Association and served on the scholarship committee. He was a member of the Georgia Economic Developers Association (GEDA), a member of the University of West Georgia Alumni Association and a member of the Rotary Club. He served on the board of directors for the American Red Cross. He was a member of the Georgia Municipal Association, the Natural Gas Deregulation Study Committee and the Governor's Regional Advisory Council. A career highlight was a trip to Holland to assist with the recruitment of a Dutch company to the Americas. He worked tirelessly to bring opportunity and progress to the areas of rural Georgia that he worked within. His work was his passion, said a family friend. He loved good music, golf, hiking and spending time with family and friends. He liked all things newsworthy. He read the Atlanta Journal Constitution from front to back every day... and he loved to listen to National Public Radio. His favorite program was "All Things Considered." An ideal weekend consisted of a trip to the north Georgia Mountains for a hike with his girls. He was a wonderful husband and father, and he loved spending time with family. There wasn't a weekend spent without a history lesson or a learning experience of some sort. Of course, the occasional Tech game always an option. He was the beloved husband of Sonji Dukes Nalley. His daughter, Alison Nalley Starnes, lives in Suwannee, with her husband, Matthew. A graveside funeral will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at Carroll Memory Gardens. In lieu of flowers, donations in honor of the Tanner Hospice Care would be greatly appreciated. Almon Funeral Home, of Carrollton, is in charge of arrangements.

NATION, Judith Rebecca Williams Nation

(Abstracted from the 5 April 2016 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)
Judith Rebecca Williams Nation, age 76, of Waycross, died Easter Sunday (March 27, 2016) at the home of her cousin, Gary Williams, in Martinez, GA. She was born in Rock Hill, SC, March 13, 1940. Her parents were the late Paul Truesdale Williams and the late Alice Rebecca Rush. In 1961, she graduated from the Crawford W. Long Memorial School of Nursing, to begin her lifelong love of nursing. In 1962, she joined the United States Air Force Nurse Corps with the rank of second lieutenant and served until her discharge in 1965. Following her service to our country, she cared for infants in the Neonatal ICU at Crawford W. Long Hospital. She taught health occupations as a high school teacher, worked as a home healthcare nurse, as well as operated health and safety clinics for Guerdon Industries manufacturing. In later years, she returned to caring for infants as a private duty nurse, often assisting with foster babies who were in need of specialized care. When not caring for babies, she could be found pursuing her passion for genealogical research with her cousin, Gary. In researching the past, she created new connections with many distant relations, and freely shared information with any of the more than 76,000 kin they discovered. She also took great joy in serving as the secretary and keeper of the Waycross High School class of 1958. She worked diligently in connecting with and bringing together her classmates for bi-annual class reunions. She is survived by her daughter, Karen Denise Bailey-Summers (wife Elizabeth) of Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia; her son, Paul Andrew Nation of North Carolina; her grandson, Elijah Paul Bailey-Summers, of Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia. She is also survived by her younger siblings, James Williams of Atlanta, Sandra Turner of Jacksonville, FL, Jeannie Johnson, of Titusville, FL, and Herb Williams, of Thomasville, GA. She had many cousins, nieces and nephews who also will miss her. She is also survived by her cousin, Gary Williams, of Martinez. He cared for her during the last three months of her life while she was receiving medical advice at the Augusta Veterans Administration Hospital. He was more than a friend in genealogical research, he was a true and dedicated friend in life. A private service is planned.

NETTLES, Lee A. Nettles

(Abstracted from the Waycross Journal Herald September 4, 2012)

BLACKSHEAR — Lee Anthony Nettles, 40, of Blackshear, died unexpectedly and peacefully in his sleep Saturday morning (Sept. 1, 2012). Born Dec. 13, 1971, he was one of twin sons of the Rev. Warnie Nettles and Judy Buck Nettles. Born two months premature, his lungs weren't fully developed and throughout the years, he would suffer many health problems. A former resident of Brunswick and Columbia, S.C., he was a resident of Blackshear for the past seven years. At the age of eight, he sat down at the piano and began to play. He had an ear for music; he could hear a song for the first time, sit down at the piano and repeat its beautiful sound. He never took a music lesson and attributed his renowned talent to God. He played for many civic groups, conventions, including the Georgia State Physician's Convention, social events and served as pianist/keyboardist for many churches. He was an honor graduate of Okefenokee Technical College as a surgical technologist. Later, he began his nursing career at South Georgia College of Nursing. His steadfast faith in God saw him through his later years of health decline. He will be remembered for his unconditional love for others and for his radiant smile. His gentle and kind spirit will live on in the hearts of his family and friends. The legacy he leaves behind serves as a reminder to those whose lives he touched. He would say today, "Just think of me as you pass by life — I thought of you as I passed in mine." He leaves behind his parents, the Rev. Warnie L. and Judy P. Nettles, of Blackshear; his twin brother, Christopher L. Nettles, of South Carolina; a sister, Shelly P. Barber, of Brunswick; two brothers, Joshua A. (Kala) Nettles, and Jonathan A. Nettles, both of Blackshear; a niece, Jade Nettles; nephews, Sheldon D. Barber, Gavin McQuaig, Joshua A. Nettles II and Simon J. Nettles; aunts and uncles, Bo and Marie Tanner, Eugene and Colleen Corbitt, all of Blackshear, Dewaine and Pennie Tanner, of Hortense, Merlene Davis, of Dahlonge, Jack and Barbara Nettles, of Alma, Joe and Rhonda Nettles, of St. George, and Jerry and Janice Nettles, of Axson; many cousins and friends; and a best friend, Sherry Nettles, of Atlanta. He was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, Earlie and Dorothy Tanner, and paternal grandparents, Joseph and Mima Ann Nettles. A celebration of life service will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday, in the Chapel of Music Funeral Home of Waycross. His twin brother, Chris, will deliver the eulogy, and his sister, Shelly, will give remarks. Interment will follow in Waters Cemetery. Casket bearers are Joshua Nettles, Jonathan Nettles, Sheldon Barber, Mark Nettles, Tommy Joe Sellers, Devin Taylor, John Jacques and Roy Brockington Sr. Honorary pallbearers will be Sherry Nettles, Doug Nettles, Ed and Diane Jacques, Kim Jacques, Sonja Brockington, Charles and Jackie Davis, Sandra Morgan, Robbie and Connie Strickland, Lori Croft, Eric Chavis and Derrick Chavis. The family will receive friends at Music Funeral Home from 6 until 9 p.m. today. Flowers are appreciated; however, memorials may be made in his memory to the family.

NEW, Selma Audrey Barker Worthy New

(Abstracted from the Madison County Carrier, Madison, Florida, May 21, 2007)

Selma Audrey Barker was born to Henry E. & Rebecca E. Barker on December 14, 1911 in Madison. She went to be with her Lord on May 14, 2008. Selma moved to Tampa in 1940, and was an active member in the Missionary Alliance Christian Church. She married George Worthy and they enjoyed many years together before his death. She later married Albert New. They shared many cherished years together before his death. Selma moved to Fort Myers in 2001 to be closer to her sister, Gladys Barker Koller. Selma will always be remembered as Aunt Selma to all who loved and cherished her. Although Aunt Selma never had children of her own, she treated all of us as if we were her children. She was a pillar of strength who taught us the meaning of love and the importance of good family values. She truly embraced God and always had a kind word for all her friends. We loved and respected this wonderful, amazing person. She was more like a second mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother to many of us. Selma was predeceased by her brothers, Henry "Bud" Barker, Eustice Barker, and Auley Barker; and her sisters, Sadie Revelle, Hanson Harris, Edna "Peattie" Mitchell, Eula Resnik and Gladys Koller. "Aunt Selma, we love you, and we will miss you. You will never be forgotten. You will always hold a special place in our hearts. We thank God for allowing us to share your warmth and grace." Aunt Selma leaves many loving nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, great, great nieces, and great, great nephews to cherish her memory.

NOEGEL, Fred W. Noegel

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, October 15, 1954)

Fred W. Noegel, 65, former Madisonian and brother of Mrs. Van H. Priest of this city, was brutally murdered in his store in Augusta, GA Saturday night a few minutes after eight o'clock. Robbery was considered the motive for the crime. Mr. Noegel operated a big supermarket in the Georgia city, and the help had just knocked off for the day when the tragedy took place. Noegel himself remained in the store for a few minutes and was back in the meat department when suddenly he was bludgeoned on the head. Indications were that a terrific struggle ensued between Mr. Noegel and his assailant before he was overcome. In addition to being beaten, Mr. Noegel was also savagely cut and stabbed. A friend came by the store and noticed the door open, walked in to tell Mr. Noegel about a fishing trip from which he had just returned. Instead he found his friend on the floor dead. Noegel's wallet was missing, but no other money was taken. Suspicion pointed strongly to a man who had bought some cigarettes and a cold drink in the store just before closing time, and who was arrested. Mr. Noegel is survived by his wife, one son, and grandchildren and several brothers and sisters. He lived in Cochrane, GA many years before moving to Augusta.

NORMAN, Catharin Reddick Norman

(Abstracted from information received from Beggs Funeral Home, 7 April 2017)

Catharin Reddick Norman, beloved great-grandmother, kitchen committee pioneer, elections representative, educator, coach, community volunteer, and neighbor, passed after celebrating her last birthday with family and friends, on a pleasant Friday, April 7, 2017. Her father, George Franklin Reddick, was a master machinist with Brooks Scanlon Lumber in Carbur, then with Buckeye through retirement. Her mother, Nettie Prince Reddick, raised 5 industrious citizens, and was very active in the church and community. Catharin was born in Perry in 1918, and returned after the Carbur Camp closed in 1928. "Shack" graduated from TCHS in 1935, and from Georgia State College for Women in 1939 with a B.S. in Health, Physical Education & Sciences. She returned to TCHS in 1939 to teach general science, chemistry, biology, physiology and coach basketball and cheer-leading. For over 30 years, she cultivated the girls' physical education program and helped drive the bus for team players and brought home the 1952 NFC championship, while teaching swimming as part of the County's summer recreation program. In 1972, she was named District Teacher of the Year. In 1999, she was appointed to the Educators Hall of Fame. After she retired from teaching in 1976, Catharin welcomed a second career with the Supervisor of Elections Office. Little did she know that over the next 25+ years she would interface with computers, hanging chads, and election monitors, with whom she refused to share homemade pimento cheese. She retired for the 2nd time at the age of 88. In the background, she chaired the Church Kitchen, Renovation and Building Committees, managed the annual Turkey Supper (1945-2007), Holy Week Breakfasts, Wednesday Fellowship Suppers, and Historic Registries. She is proud to have worked with the Girl Scouts, Red Cross, Library, Tuberculosis Association, Hospital Auxiliary, Guild Circle, and so many more. Catharin learned to ski in her 60's, overcame many breaks and falls being active, and charitable, happily. In 1996, she threw the first pitch to christen Catharin Reddick Norman Park, just down the street ("Catharin Norman Lane") from her lifelong home which she built with husband, Woodruff Clyde Norman (d. 1972). In 2013, she was recognized as Buckeye's FCU Community Minded Member of the Year. Catharin is survived by her older sister (Ruth Henry), youngest brother (Harold Reddick), son (W.C. Norman, Jr. and wife Susan Shaver Norman), 3 grandchildren (Missy, Mandy, and Bob), and 3 great-grandchildren (West, Liam, and Presley). We welcome you to celebrate her life at a service in her honor at the First United Methodist Church in Perry on Saturday, April 15. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the First United Methodist Church Kitchen Committee at PO Box 487, Perry, FL 32348. All arrangements are under the care of TJ Beggs Jr. & Sons Funeral Homes.

NORRIS, Hazel Vera Norris

(Abstracted from information courtesy of Music Funeral Home, Lakeland, GA and Valdosta, GA 16 January 2017)

Hazel Vera Norris was born in Francesville, IN area on July 2, 1935 to the late James Lroy Norris and Hester Mildred (Miller) Norris, and passed out of this life on January 16, 2017 at her home in Brooks County, Georgia. She lived in Indiana for twenty-five years, eventually deciding to trade the cold of the north for the southern sunshine. She moved to Arkansas, then to Florida, coming to Lowndes County, GA in 1992. Hazel made the decision to live her life for God at the age of five years. At that time she repented of her sins and was baptized in the precious name of the Lord Jesus Christ as the book of Acts tells us to do. She received the baptism of the Holy Ghost three days later. Hazel was a very sweet girl and a very firm believer in "come what may" she would go on with Jesus. Nothing else really mattered, all the way through life. Hazel never married. She always planned to, but the right one never came. Her priorities were church and then children. She loved children and adopted two, a son, Jason, and a daughter, Brianna. She had many foster children and was a Brooks County foster parent for ten years. She also loved gardening and flowers. Hazel is survived by her two children, Jason E. Norris of Lafayette, IN and Brianna S. Norris of Valdosta, one granddaughter, Amber Norris and great-grandson, Noah Cole of LaPorte, IN, three special foster children, Brenda Mull of Ray City, GA, Joseph Collins of Lafayette, IN and Kevin Burkhart of Marianna, AR, as well as several other foster children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, one brother, Ben E. Norris of Lafayette, IN, one sister, Ava N. Lee of the home in Brooks County, GA, a foster brother, Jimmie D. Whitfield of Mountain Home, AR, one special niece, Barbara Norris of the home, and many other nephews, nieces, great-nephews and great-nieces and some great-great nieces and nephews and friends, only one first cousin, Darlene Hansford of New Carlisle, OH. Hazel was preceded in death by her parents, five brothers and three sisters. Funeral Services will be Saturday, January 21, 2017 at The Apostolic's of Valdosta, 3855 Old Hwy 41 N, Valdosta, GA. Burial will follow in Friendship Cemetery. Ms. Norris's family is being cared for by the professional and caring staff of Music Funeral Services, Valdosta.
