

QUACKENBOS, Shirley Quackenbos

(Abstracted by courtesy of Music Funeral Home, Lakeland, GA and Valdosta, GA)

Shirley Quackenbos, age 64, of Valdosta, GA passed away Wednesday, March 12, 2013 in Langdale Hospice House. She was born on March 19, 1948 in Vero Beach, FL to the late Grovino and Louise Weldon Stalvey. She worked in the Accounting Department of Northern Trust of Vero Beach, FL, and was a loving mother and grandmother. She would give you the shirt off her back if you were in need. She was a beautiful, gracious, kind-hearted woman who saw the good when nobody else could. Her laugh made the world smile and her presence lit up a room. She was loved beyond what words can express. She will be missed dearly and forever. Ms. Quackenbos was preceded in death by a sister, Annette Cayson, and a brother, Bobby Stalvey. Her survivors include two daughters Sherry Ashcraft and Michelle Curry both of Vero Beach, FL; five grandchildren Robyn Curry of Hahira, GA; Arthur Toothill of Vero Beach, FL; Summer Ashcraft; Savannah Ashcraft; John Ashcraft all four of Vero Beach, FL; two great-grandchildren Bentley Toothill of Vero Beach, FL; and Jayden Jones of Hahira, GA; and sisters Carolyn Stalvey, Marion Stalvey, and Pam Gosnell, all of Thomasville, GA; a brother Troy Stalvey of Indiana. As per her wishes, she will be cremated and a celebration of life will be held Saturday, March 16, 2013 in the Valdosta Chapel of Music Funeral Services. Music Funeral Services of Valdosta is serving the family.

QUARLES, Charles Levi Quarles

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, March 28, 1947)

Charles Levi Quarles, aged 59 years, died at his home here Friday March 21, of a heart attack. Funeral services were held Sunday at Red Hill, SC. Mr. Quarles was born in Edgefield, SC but has been a resident of Madison and Madison County for a number of years. He was engaged in farming and the mercantile business until the past year when he retired due to ill health. Survivors are his widow, Mrs. C. L. Quarles and one daughter, Mrs. W. B. Paschel, of Douglas, GA.

QUARTERMAN, Frances Quarterman

(Abstracted by courtesy of the Waycross Journal Herald November 21, 2011)

Frances Quarterman, 92, died Friday (Nov. 18, 2011) at Satilla Care Center after an extended illness. She was a native of the Jones Creek community, in Long (then Liberty) County, and she lived in Waycross since the age of 3. Her parents were the late Joseph Thomas Quarterman and Idelle Horne Quarterman. She was predeceased by her brother-in-law, former Journal-Herald editor James A. "Jim" Pinson. She was a graduate of Waycross High School and attended Georgia State College for Women, the University of Georgia Off-Campus Center and the Waycross Vocational School. For 30 years she worked as an accountant for the Ware County Department of Family and Children Services. She was a long-time member of First United Methodist Church of Waycross, the United Methodist Women and taught Sunday School. She was previously a member of the Waycross Junior Woman's Club, which she served as secretary. She was an elegant Southern lady known for her beautiful smile and happy manner. She enjoyed being with her family, cheering for the Atlanta Braves and playing bridge. Survivors are her sister, Nelle Quarterman Pinson, of Waycross, a niece Jennifer Pinson Harvey (husband Patrick Harvey), of Lawrenceville, and her beloved great-nieces, Virginia Christine Harvey and Kathryn Frances Harvey, of Lawrenceville. Memorials may be made to First United Methodist Church, 410 Williams St., Waycross, Ga. 31501, "Everyday with Love Fund" or to the music ministry. A visitation will be held this evening from 5 until 7 at the Miles-Odum Funeral Home. A graveside service will be held 11 a.m. Tuesday in Oakland Cemetery. Sympathy may be expressed by signing online at www.milesodumfuneralhome.com.

QUEEN, Joel Queen

(Abstracted from the 15 February 2016 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

Joel Queen, age 66, of Waycross died Saturday (Feb. 13, 2016) at his residence after an extended illness. He was born in Hoboken to the late Thomas Early and Frances Lecory Queen and lived most of his life in Brantley County. He was a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps and served in the Vietnam War. He attended Christ Church in Waycross and was a member of the gospel group, Chosen. He had a passion for both gospel music and church. He loved to fish whenever the opportunity was available, but overall he was a loving husband, father and all around family man. Along with his parents he was preceded in death by three sisters and four brothers. He is survived by his loving wife, Judy Queen, of Waycross; 7 children, Tracy Queen of Kingsland, Delene Queen (David) Holton of Cordele, Clayton Queen of Waycross, Brandon Queen of California, Trish (Lanier) Lentz of St. George, Cheryl (Jeff) Westberry of Screven, Kathy (Ronnie) Joyner of Waycross; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren; 2 sisters, Pastine Stringer of Hoboken, Magdalene Queen Davis of Hoboken; numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives. The family especially wants to thank a special nephew, Joey Queen, of Brantley County. A memorial service will be at Christ Church in Waycross Monday. Miles-Odum Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

QUEEN, Yvonne Lee Howell Queen

(Abstracted from the Waycross (GA) Journal Herald Newspaper)

NAHUNTA — Yvonne Lee Howell Queen, 76, of Nahunta, passed away Tuesday (April 9, 2013) at St. Vincent Medical Center. Born in Nahunta, she was the daughter of the late Harvey W. Howell and Emmie N. Hickox. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Thomas Queen Jr., a daughter, Sandra Ann Westberry, and a grandson, Thomas J. Reeves. She was retired from King Edward Cigar Factory as a machine operator. She was a member of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. She loved cooking, solving crossword puzzles, watching TV and going out to eat with her family. Survivors include her son, Donald Ray Queen, of Schlatterville; her granddaughter, Jennifer "Renee" Reeves, of Nahunta; and a great-grandbaby on the way; her step-father, William D. "Bill" Griffin; her sister and brother-in-law, Evelyn and Gabriel "Buster" Strickland, of Nahunta; four nieces and nephews, Teresa Johns (Richard), of Nahunta, Harvey Strickland (Sandra), of Blackshear, Dustin Lee Johns (fiancee Necole Rooks), of Nahunta, and Thomas Johns (special friend Jadison Coker), of Nahunta; and several friends and other relatives. A funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 at Frye Funeral Home. Burial will follow in High Bluff Cemetery. Arrangements are with Frye Funeral Home, Nahunta.

QUICK, Leon William Quick

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, December 18, 1970)

Leon William Quick, age 69, of Tallahassee, father of Mr. Charles Quick of Madison, died Friday in Tallahassee after a short illness. He was a native of Miller County, GA and a member of the First Church of the Nazarene. He had lived in Tallahassee since 1952. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Charles Quick of Madison; Leon Quick of Indiana; Harris Quick of Tallahassee; a daughter, Mrs. Leroy Ferrell of Tallahassee; two brothers and four sisters.

QUICK,

Mark

Gregory

Quick

(Abstracted by courtesy of Greene Publishing, Madison, Florida November 9, 2011)

Mark Gregory Quick, age 49, died Wednesday, November 9, 2011, in Madison. Graveside funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, November 12, 2011, at Oak Ridge Cemetery. Visitation will be Friday from 5-7 p.m. at Beggs Funeral Home. He was born September 24, 1962 to Sue G. Quick and the late Charles E. Quick. He was raised in Madison and worked in Tallahassee for the past 16 years. He is survived by his wife of 19 years, Cheryl Quick; one son, Jeremiah Quick; two brothers, Charles E. Quick Jr. (Ann), and William Keith Quick (Camille); one sister, Betsy Blanton (Tony); and 13 nieces and nephews. Beggs Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

QUILLEN, Robert I. Quillen

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, September 14, 1956)

Capt. Robert I. Quillen, husband of the former Pat Rathel, of Madison, was killed in a helicopter crash in Dayton, Ohio on September 7th. The Dayton Journal Herald stated that the tail section of the helicopter Quillen was testing apparently disintegrated at an altitude of between 500 and 1,000 feet, crashed and burned. Capt. Quillen is survived by his parents, wife and three small children.

QUILLIAN, Dr E. P. Quillian

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, May 4, 1951)

Dr E. P. Quillian, age 72, lifelong resident, and a practicing physician of Clyattville, GA died Wednesday evening in Archbold Hospital after a two months' illness. Survivors include his wife, a sister, Mrs. R. O. Lane, Sr., and aunt, Mrs. James Sale, Jr., of Madison; two daughters, Mrs. Wisenbaker, of Clyattville and Mrs. Nat Breedlove, of Valdosta. Also surviving are two sons, Holwell and E. P. of Savannah, and two brothers, Dr. Bascom Quillian, of Douglas, GA and the other living in Texas.

QUINCY, Kathleen Inez Quincy

(Abstracted by courtesy of Joe P. Burns Funeral Home, Perry, FL and Mayo, FL)

Kathleen Inez Quincy, 53, of Perry, died Wednesday, July 24, 2013 at Big Bend Hospice in Tallahassee, FL. Kathleen was born March 8, 1960 in Fairbanks, AK, to the late Robert and Barbara (Gulick) Birge. Mrs. Quincy was preceded in death by 1 sister and 2 brothers. Kathleen was of the Baptist Faith and in her spare time she enjoyed cooking and collecting native American items and artwork. She is survived by her husband of 35 years John Frank Quincy Sr., Perry, FL; 2 children: John Frank Quincy II and his wife Kellie, and Laura Schaired, 8 grandchildren; 1 sister; 2 brothers; and numerous nieces and nephews. Memorial contributions can be made to Big Bend Hospice of Tallahassee. There are no services planned at this time. All arrangements are under the care of Joe P. Burns Funeral Home.

QUINN, George W. Quinn

(Abstracted from the Madison Enterprise-Recorder Newspaper, Madison, Florida, March 23, 1945)

Mr. George W. Quinn, aged citizen of the Lamont section, passed away Sunday, March 11th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Bailey near Lamont. Death was due to the infirmities of age. Mr. Quinn was born in Columbia County in 1866, and lived there for a number of years. Later he moved to Taylor County and then several years ago moved to Mr. Bailey's home in Madison County. He was laid to rest Monday afternoon at Deadman's Bay by the side of his wife, who preceded him in death many years ago

QUINN, Susie Watson Quinn

(Abstracted from the February 22, 2014 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

WAYNESVILLE — Susie Watson Quinn, age 83, of Waynesville, died Thursday (Feb. 20, 2014) at her residence after an extended illness. Born in Pansey, AL, she was the daughter of Melvin and Ruth Lunsford Watson. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Bill Eugene Quinn, a brother, Jacob Watson, and two sisters, Magalene Brooks and Eleanor Fleming. She moved to Florala, AL, where she graduated from Florala High School. She then graduated from nursing school in New Orleans, LA. She was a registered nurse for Lyod Nolan Hospital and a long time resident of Midfield, AL, before moving to Waynesville. She was a member of United Methodist Church in Nahunta, the United Methodist Women and the Red Hats of Brunswick. She also loved cooking and reading. Survivors include her 3 sons and daughters-in-law, Bill (Jackie) Quinn, of Alabama, Terry (Donna) Quinn, of Waynesville, and Daniel (Pat) Quinn, of Jacksonville, FL; 7 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; several nieces, nephews and other relatives. A memorial service will be held Sunday at United Methodist Church in Nahunta. Arrangements are with Frye Funeral Home, Nahunta.