

YACOVONE, Dorothy Kennedy Vacovone

(Abstracted from Greene Publishing, Madison, Florida, 28 April, 2015)

Our beloved Dorothy Kennedy Yacovone, age 81, returned to her true spirit essence on April 21, following a stay at Langdale Hospice House with her loving husband, Arthur Yacovone, at her side as he has been since the day they first met. Born to this lifetime on July 6, 1934 in Holyoke, MA, she is the cherished daughter of the late John and Sophie (Bick) Kennedy. A graduate of Chicopee High School, it was there on the stairwell Dorothy met the love of her life and her husband of sixty years. Following her graduation from Holyoke Business School she worked at Sample-Durick as secretary to the President. As newlyweds, Arthur and Dorothy moved to East Longmeadow where they constructed their first home and raised their family. During their time there, Dorothy was employed as Secretary to the Principal of Meadow Brook Elementary School. She later worked for many years at both Forrest and Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Companies. She vivaciously dedicated much of her time to the Women's Club of St. Michael's Catholic Church with the same effervescence she'd earlier taught Bible Study to elementary children at St. Mary's Church in Willimansett. In 1979 Dorothy and Arthur moved to Boca Raton, FL in pursuit of their love for the sea. Dorothy began a career with Barnett / Florida Coast Bank which, over time, evolved into Pointe Bank where she served as a Corporate Officer. There she spent many hours with family at the beach and often fashioned art from objects she found there. Once retired, the two moved to Madison County, FL, where she was able to delight in deer grazing on the lawn while painting and quilting at leisure. Dorothy is survived by her loving husband Arthur of Pinetta, FL; her daughter, Lori and her husband Rainer of Craig, CO; daughter, Lisa Stewart of Juno Beach, FL; daughter, Linda Yacovone of Boca Raton, FL; 8 grandchildren: Erin, Sean, Mara, Kaitlan, Holden, Conor, Graeme and Olivia; 3 great-grandchildren: Henry, Indy and Jordan; brothers and sisters-in-law: Philip, Joan, Stephen and Maureen and nieces and nephews. All love her dearly and are grateful for her love in return. The model of grace, dignity and strength, Dorothy is reminisced as a beautiful, creative, energetic, joyful, scholarly soul who loved her family and friends so. Everything she touched was left the better for it. She is there in the moon and the stars, in a cardinal as it flutters by, in everything beautiful that surrounds us. A heartfelt thanks to South Georgia Medical Center and Langdale Hospice House for the excellent medical care and comfort our dear Dorothy received there. We'd also like to especially thank the staff of Madison Health and Rehabilitative Center for their support and thoughtfulness during the past two years of Dorothy's life. The family will gather at the St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church Chapel in Boca Raton, FL on Monday, May 4 to celebrate Dorothy's life. You are most welcome to attend this Mass. Memorial donations may be sent to the Audubon Society at www.audubon.org or the Marine Conservation Biology Institute at www.mcbi.org.

YARBROUGH, Deborah Booth Yarbrough

(Abstracted from the 27 March 2017 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

Deborah Booth Yarbrough, age 65, of Waycross, passed away at the Mayo Clinic Health System in Waycross after a sudden illness. She was born in Bunnell, FL, to the late Jack L. Booth Sr. and Mary Ruth Shoemaker. She taught for more than 30 years in Waycross. She taught at Wacona Elementary School, Memorial Drive Elementary School and Ware County Middle School. She was awarded "Teacher of the Year" for the Ware County School System. After her retirement she taught at Coastal Pines Technical College. Throughout the years, she constantly had students approaching her and her family saying how much they loved her and how much she influenced their lives after having her as a teacher. She loved to do photography for friends, family and church members and also helped her daughter Anne on shoots. She never met a stranger, but if she did, she knew everything about them in one encounter. She loved her birdfeeders, beautiful wind chimes, photography, Apple computer and cooking for her family. She enjoyed travelling, and had the opportunity to visit many places including Italy, Germany, Ireland and Mexico. She loved visiting her daughter in Athens, GA, and was looking forward to the birth of her granddaughter, Sonny, in just two weeks. Her biggest joy was being "Mimi" to her grandkids. She was a member of the Waycross Service League and Trinity United Methodist Church. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her step-father, Charles Vernon Shoemaker. Survivors include her husband, Henry Elliot "Sonny" Yarbrough, of Waycross, two children, Anne Yarbrough (Walker Howle), of Athens, and Jack Yarbrough (Nikki), of Waycross, two grandchildren, Ely Yarbrough and Aubrey Yarbrough, a brother, Jack L. Booth Jr., of Fernandina Beach, FL, two step-sisters, Cheryl Williams (Robert), of Blackshear, and Janice (Gary) Jenevein of New Orleans, LA, and numerous other relatives. A memorial service will be today at Trinity United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers, the family would like donations to be made in her honor to the Ware County Humane Society, Southeast Cancer Unit or the charity of one's choice. Miles-Odum Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

YARBROUGH, Herman Earl Yarbrough

(Abstracted from information received from John Bullard, 15 November 2018)

Herman Earl Yarbrough passed away in his home on Nov. 2, 2018. He was 71 years old. He was born in Hot Springs, AR. He retired to Lee, FL near the Withlacoochee River after he met his "common law" wife, Aline Emerson (known to local's years ago as the Treehouse Lady). She preceded him in death on Thanksgiving Day in 1999. Herman is survived by three sisters: Gladys Breshears, of Arkansas; Martha Harvey, of Springfield, FL and Laverne Ordete, also of Springfield. He had 10 children and many grandchildren. He kept in touch with his sister, Gladys. Herman served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. He was a welder by trade. Herman was a very well-known character on the Withlacoochee River. He never met a stranger and loved to talk. He enjoyed telling stories about his life. One of his favorites was about Bill Clinton and him attending high school together. He loved to sit by the river, a campfire or ride on his lawnmower and have a beer. He loved a home-cooked meal. He enjoyed his life (maybe to an excess) and friends throughout the years. He considered his friends as his only family. He was loved and will be missed. His final resting place will be in Lee Memorial Cemetery. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

YARBROUGH, Hubert Dorcey Yarbrough

(Abstracted from the 10 August 2016 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

YARBROUGH, James Paul Yarbrough

(Abstracted from the 7 October 2016 Waycross, GA Journal Herald Newspaper)

Dr. James Paul Yarbrough, age 79, of Ithaca, NY, passed away Saturday (Oct. 1, 2016) at his home after an extended illness. "Paul," as he was best known was born Aug. 24, 1937 in Waycross to the late Rev. Ralph Bird and LaVerte Tanner Yarbrough. His education and career took him from Georgia to Iowa to New York. Ever the researcher and reflective intellectual, he recently described his life as encompassing four major stages: his childhood moving around south Georgia as an itinerant preacher's child; his teenage years spent helping establish a family farm and newspaper business and meeting his future wife; his college and graduate school years in Ames, Iowa, where he began his family and started his academic career; and his eventual establishment at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, when his family grew even larger with the addition of grandchildren. As the child of a Methodist minister in the South Georgia Conference, he lived in the cities of Waycross, St. Marys, Eastman, Macon and Kingsland, all before the age of 13. In the spring of 1951, the Yarbrough family moved to their farm in the Stokesville community near Axson, where he spent his teenage years and started a farming venture with his mother and brother Keith. In 1954, Paul's father established the Atkinson County Citizen, and he quickly took to the duties associated with publishing a weekly newspaper. In addition to helping sustain the family in its farming and newspaper operations, he was a dedicated student, both in academics and extra-curricular activities. Under the tutelage of W.E. Thombs, his beloved agricultural teacher and the Future Farmers of America (FFA) sponsor at Atkinson County High School, he ran for and won the office of Georgia FFA state president, and thus began his life-long interest in the study of agricultural journalism and communications. While still in high school, he met his future wife and great love, the late Eddie Francenia Morris. He graduated from Abraham Baldwin College in Tifton, and the University of Georgia in Athens, obtaining honors at both institutions. In 1960, as a newly married couple in pursuit of their careers, Paul and Eddie moved to Ames, IA. In Iowa, he received his masters and Doctor of Philosophy of Sociology from Iowa State University, and the couple's two sons were born. In the summer of 1962, he joined the U.S. Army National Guard and served in the elite Army Reserve Intelligence Unit for six years. Upon completion of his PhD in 1968, he remained on staff at Iowa State until 1982 when he was recruited by Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, as a researcher and full professor of communication science. During his academic research career, his most devoted and able assistant was his wife, Eddie, who was his partner in life and professional endeavors. After his retirement from Cornell in 1999, he lovingly cared for Eddie until her death in 2005. Until his passing, he also was able to enjoy the company of his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who lived close to him. Survivors include 2 sons, James (Lori) Yarbrough and Thomas Yarbrough; 3 grandchildren, Logan Yarbrough, Shelby Yarbrough (Justin Mott), Drusilla (Michael) Phelps; 5 great-grandchildren, Nolan Yarbrough, Landon Yarbrough, Tanner Yarbrough, Abigail Williams and Lillian Phelps, all of Ithaca, NY; 1 brother, Keith (Kathy) Yarbrough of Waycross; 1 sister, Margaret (Slade) McCranie of Morven, GA; sisters-in-law, Sue Yarbrough of Chapin, SC, and Pearl (Jack) Tanner of Douglas; brother-in-law, Jesse (Mary) Morris of Pearson; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. In addition to his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by his older brother, Bradley Yarbrough of Chapin, SC. The funeral will be held at Stokesville Baptist Church near Axson Sunday. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. Bangs Funeral Home of Ithaca, NY, and Relihan Funeral Home of Pearson are assisting the family with arrangements.

YARBROUGH, Jessie Sirmans Yarbrough

(Abstracted by courtesy of the Waycross Journal Herald June 21, 2007)

Jessie Sirmans Yarbrough, 94, of Waycross, died early Wednesday (June 20, 2007) at Baptist Village Retirement Communities. She was born Jessie Marian Sirmans on a farm in Clinch County. Her parents were the late Joseph A. Sirmans and Violet Elizabeth Bachlott Sirmans. She graduated from Waycross High School in 1928 where she earned perfect attendance and was named class valedictorian. She was awarded a full scholarship to Wesleyan College in Macon, but she declined it to stay home to take care of her invalid parents. She did, however, become the only woman graduate from Gordon Business College in Waycross. Mrs. Yarbrough worked as the secretary for Trinity United Methodist Church, Lyric Theater and the Department of Family and Children Services. She retired in 1979 as financial director of the Waycross City Board of Education. She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church for 83 years. Within the church, she served as a Sunday School teacher, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, district treasurer, "Quiet Disciple" of the Trinity United Methodist Women and was a charter member of the Willing Workers Sunday School class. Phil is predeceased by his sons Phillip Delany Yonge, and Robert Holbein Yonge and his brother Jim Yonge. Born in Miami Beach, FL on April 13, 1935 to James Ernest Yonge and Margaret Reeves Delany Yonge, Phil made the most of his youth in South Florida, spending time with friends at the beach or camping in the Everglades, while attending Coral Gables High School (Class of 1954), where he excelled as a member of legendary Coach Nick Koty's Cavalier football teams. He also cherished his time as a member of the Stags Fraternity. After a very brief stop at Florida State University, Phil attended Stetson University in Deland, FL, where he was a two-way lineman for the Hatters' football team, was a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, and graduated with a degree in Mathematics in 1959. From Deland, Phil proceeded to serve in the United States Army as a missile platoon leader in El Paso, TX, Richland, WA, and Newport News, VA. After his time in the military, Phil returned to school, obtaining a degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Florida in 1964, and began his corporate career with Texas Instruments in Dallas, TX and then Martin Marietta in Orlando, FL. While at Martin, Phil studied for the Florida General Contractor's Exam and in 1973 started his first company, Yonge-Evans, which built homes in the Winter Park, FL area. He then relocated to Orange Park, FL to partner with his brother James to develop and build residential communities in North Florida. Over the next 40 years, Phil was the President of AY Ventures, Inc., which developed multiple residential and commercial properties in the area, enabling him to do one of the things he loved most - load up one of his big black Labrador Retrievers (Charlie, Blue, and Blue) in to the truck and visit one of his construction sites. Phil also owned and operated several local businesses, including The Club Continental and Doctors Lake Marina. When not working and strategizing on his next deal, Phil enjoyed spending time with friends and family on his boat Ol' Blue in Green Turtle Cay, Bahamas, or at PDY Farm in Greenville, FL. Phil, also known as Pally to his friends, could never sit still and found joy in a varied number of pursuits, including engine repair, lobster diving, beekeeping, cattle and chicken raising, and camellia judging (taking great pride in his certification as a camellia competition judge). When not doing (or often in conjunction with) one of these activities, Phil could be found aflight in one of his Cessnas ferrying people and/or boat supplies to and from the Abacos. He could also be seen regularly on the sidelines of his grandchildren's lacrosse games, making sure to let everyone know that his grandchild was the one who just scored or made a good play. Phil served as senior warden of the vestry at St. James Episcopal Church in Quitman, GA, and was actively involved in helping the Church with whatever project needed to be completed. He loved late night talks over a bottle of wine about politics, Florida Gators football, or the intricacies of the latest thing that he had taught himself, like solar power, soil mechanics, or mutual fund analytics. His generosity was legendary, he wanted nothing more than for the people in his life to be comfortable, happy, and healthy - usually affirmatively responding to any request with "ok partner" or "ok sweetheart". A Memorial Service will be at St. James Episcopal Church, Quitman, GA. In lieu of flowers, a Memorial donation may be made to the Brooks County Boys & Girls Club, PO Box 588, Quitman GA 31643 or McKee Botanical Garden, 350 US Highway 1, Vero Beach, FL 32962. A Celebration of Life Party will be held in Orange Park, FL. Arrangements have been made by Carson McLane Funeral Services in Valdosta, GA.

Jonye Jean (Pearce) Young, age 82, of Lakeland, GA, having completed the work assigned her here, departed this world to be with Jesus on Thursday, June 25, 2015 at her residence. Born on August 2, 1932, she was the daughter of Herman Pearce from Burnham, IL, and Willie Erma (Powell) Carter of Lakeland, GA. She grew up in Lanier County and graduated from LCHS in 1949. She attended Andrew College in Cuthbert, GA before returning home to marry her high school sweetheart, James N. Young, who at that time was a member of the United States Navy. James and Jonye Jean had three children: Darla, James, Jr., and Deborah; and like most career military families, lived in several places over the next twenty years - Jacksonville, FL; Memphis, TN; Brunswick, ME; Puerto Rico and Pensacola, FL (couple of these more than once). Just like James and Jean were "partners" in their military service, they were also partners in ministry from the late 1960's until their retirement in 2001. Together they founded Calvary Temple in Valdosta, GA; and served together there for five years before heading out to British Honduras (now Belize), Central America to be gospel missionaries to the Chatchi people indigenous to that region. This was no luxury assignment, as they lived in a small three room house, where the walls didn't expand all the way up to the ceiling, and the interior doors were curtains. But it was a mansion compared to the homes of the people they were preaching to in the jungles via interpreters. Upon returning home, James and Jean again pastored churches in north Florida before becoming house parents for troubled teenagers at the Florida Baptist Children's Home in Tallahassee, FL, where they served for seven years. They reentered the pulpit ministry, serving several locations in north Florida and South Georgia in the Baptist system, until their retirement in 2001. With a life time of service to country and to the gospel of Jesus Christ, they at last returned home to Jean's childhood home in Lanier County. Jean said many times after that, that she wished to live out the rest of her life at home. Sometime about a year or two ago, she and James became members of Springhead United Methodist Church. (No longer able to drive, one goes where the car goes on Sunday mornings; and Springhead was where the car was going.) After a brief stay in the hospital in June of this year, Jean came home under Hospice care to finish her days. Of course, she made one more move after that - she flew to Jesus to be with her Lord this past Thursday. Home at last! Jean was preceded in death by a daughter-in-law, Karen Young and a granddaughter, Cyndal Young. She is survived by her husband of 64 years, James Young, 2 daughters & sons-in-law, Darla (Steve) Jackson and Deborah (Dennis) Wilson; 1 son, James Young, Jr.; 8 grandchildren, Emily, Stephen Jr. and Jacob Jackson, Katrina (Travis) Hens, Angel Young, Brandee Berry, Jennifer Carrol and Gracie Wilson; and 17 great grandchildren; 1 brother & sister-in-law, Gibson (Sondra) Carter; 1 Sister, Martha Carter; and a plethora of other extended family. Funeral services will be held Sunday, June 28, 2015 in the Lakeland Chapel of Music Funeral Services with burial to follow in Unity United Methodist Church Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please make a contribution in her memory to the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, TN. Music Funeral Services of Lakeland, GA is serving the family.
